

Class Teacher

Honolulu Waldorf School seeks a class teacher who loves children, enjoys working with parents, and is committed to working with colleagues. Our ideal candidate will have completed a bachelor's or masters degree as well as a certificate from a recognized Waldorf teacher training program, and is enthusiastic about teaching out of the philosophical and methodological principles of Waldorf Education. Additional interests, skills, and initiative in various areas such as drawing, singing, movement, and drama are also desired.

The Honolulu Waldorf School is an established coeducational, independent school serving 275 students from Early Childhood through Grade 12. The school is located on two campuses: The Early Childhood and Grades are in Niu Valley with a majestic monkey pod tree-shaded campus; the High School is located on a breath-taking oceanfront property in Aina Haina, both in East Oahu.

If you are interested in working in Paradise, joining our team, participating in many aspects of school life, and engaging with interesting people of all ages from diverse cultures, send your CV, cover letter, and three references to the Faculty Hiring Committee at fachiringcom@honoluluwaldorf.org