Shop Safe and Local this Holiday Season!

Lake Oswego, Oregon – The Arts Council of Lake Oswego is making it convenient for you to shop for those hard to find holiday gifts and unique hand-crafted treasures, while providing a safe and comfortable shopping environment at ARTspace Gallery, located at 41 B Avenue, Lake Oswego. Thank you to this year’s Holiday Marketplace sponsor, Tiffany Minus, Attorney & Shareholder, Buckley Law, P.C.

In its fourth year, the hand-selected, all-media Holiday Marketplace will be open from November 28 through December 30. It showcases work including fine art, wood, ceramics, jewelry, handmade gifts, ornaments, textiles, confections, accessories, and more. A staple of the holiday season, this year with extra safety precautions in place, ARTspace Gallery will be filled with work from local and regional artists, as well as perennial favorites.

This curated and hand-selected collection of work includes:
Ha Austin – ceramics,
Park Place Perennials – lavender candles, scents, and scrubs,
Madsass Soap – homemade soaps, salts, and lotions,
Lilo Sermol – handcrafted jewelry,
Reclaimed Wool – ornaments and home goods,
Sora Shodo – original fine art (Japanese calligraphy),
Michelle Purvis – original fine art (paintings),
Emily Miller – ceramics, cards, and encaustic,
Liz Pike – original fine art (paintings),
Tiger Food Press – home goods, prints, and cards,
LeBrie Rich – felt ornaments, felt-kits, and cards,
Stubborn Stiles – jewelry and iconic ornaments,
Jane Ramsey – original fine art (watercolor),
Carol Greiwe – one of a kind jewelry,
The Candy RX – scrumptious candy confections.
For a full listing of artists, see the Arts Council website at www.artscouncillo.org.

Holiday Marketplace is the only dedicated, non-profit visual arts space in Lake Oswego. Purchases directly benefit the artists and community-enriching programming of the Arts Council.

ARTspace Gallery is taking all the safety precautions for a safe visit including:

- ✔ Face masks are required to visit
- ✔ Hand sanitizing stations are available throughout the gallery
- ✔ Safe distance decals and public capacity are enforced
- ✔ Sanitizing and cleaning after visitors
- ✔ Contact-tracing – provide information where the public can check-in
- ✔ Requesting people to stay home if not feeling well

This year, Holiday Marketplace will feature an online store which will coincide with the opening on November 28. Updates, online virtual events, and more are available on the Arts Council website at www.artscouncillo.org.
