Lake Oswego, Oregon – The Arts Council of Lake Oswego (ACLO) is excited to present Visons of 4, featuring photographs by Richard Blakeslee, Kevin Felts, Jon Lesch, and Reagan Ramsey. The exhibition will be on view from February 19 through April 2 at the ARTspace Gallery, located at 41 B Avenue in Lake Oswego.

The four local photographers featured in this exhibition create images for the love of photography rather than commercial gain. For them, a passion for photography is a constant source of creative opportunity. Each immerses themselves in capturing and documenting moments in time, and their work and creative eye have kept them engaged for a lifetime. Each brings different backgrounds, work histories, and styles to the show with over 35 pieces on view.

“Each of us has taken photographs all of our lives, and only our friends and family have seen what we’ve done. So, I asked my fellow photographer friends, why not put a show together?” remarks Reagan Ramsey, one of the featured artists. “The shots in the exhibition are ones that each of us chose for what appeals to us personally. The image may remind us of a special place, or a person who affected us. Some are meant to provoke a reaction. Others simply are intended to carry the beauty of a moment in time. The creativity spans from local settings to places around the globe.”
The Arts Council will be hosting a virtual opening reception and artist talk on February 26, from 5 to 6 p.m. For more information and the Zoom link visit www.artscouncillo.org.

All prints in the Visions of 4 exhibition are available for sale. ARTspace Gallery is open 10 to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and is taking all the safety precautions for a safe visit including:

- Face masks required to visit
- Hand sanitizing stations available throughout the gallery
- Safe distance decals and public capacity are enforced
- Sanitizing and cleaning after visitors
- Contact-tracking – provide information where the public can check-in
- Requesting people to stay home if not feeling well
