Sale of water, beer, and wine are the exclusive right of the Blanco Chamber of Commerce and may not be sold by food vendors. No items bearing the words “Blanco Lavender Festival” and/or “Lavender Capital of Texas” or its logos will be allowed without prior written approval of the Blanco Chamber of Commerce.

Food vendors provide their own canopy, tables and display equipment. Canopy corners must be secured by weights, not tent stakes. Food vendors may work with propane. No generators are allowed. Thorough clean-up and trash removal from your vending space is required. Absolutely no trash left on site. Festival does not offer water hook-ups. A $200. Cleaning deposit will be required in the form of a check or money order at the time that you check in. Deposit will be returned to you at the close of the festival, provided the space is left in arrival condition.

Booth sharing is allowed, provided that all parties involved are represented on your application form.

All sales and promotions must be conducted inside the exhibitor’s booth space, not in the aisles, in front of the booth or walking around the festival grounds. All equipment must be inside the Exhibitor’s allotted booth space and must not encroach on aisles or thoroughfares. All state food health guidelines will apply. The Blanco Chamber of Commerce reserves the right to prohibit sales or distribution of any and all printed or other items which may be considered objectionable to the festival and its attendees. No audio speakers to broadcast information or music will be allowed in or outside of allotted booth area.

The Blanco Lavender Festival and/or the Blanco Chamber of Commerce assumes no responsibility for Workman’s Compensation, FICA or withholding taxes for any and all employees or agents who work for any vendor in the Blanco Lavender Festival and shall not be responsible for sales tax. All vendors must have sales tax certificates posted for inspection upon demand. All Food Vendors must have a valid State Food Handler’s Permit. You will be notified of your acceptance no later than April 3rd, 2017. There will be no refunds after acceptance and no refunds should bad weather or illness occur.
