Divine

Actions to stay safe?
I decided to ask God for protection.

Because if I didn’t
It would be too much
and one breaks too easily.
Only in the hands of “something”,
holding on to something
 can you handle so much
pain, blood,
injustice.

To God
every step of the way

that he protect us.
The things we used to like
a dance, a drink,
we’ve not been able to do.

Back to the inner being,
all back.
It’s like crossing
the life and death line.
Tears are in my eyes,
but I keep strong.

Protection is more than a material sense.

I’m not really sure
what other people think.
I’ve not spoken about it much
with anyone.

All the true paths
will lead to the creator, I do not call it God.

I feel it is in everything,
Maybe I know
that the world is not fair
but I trust
in laws that cannot be unjust.

The only security there is
it is not a 100%

My best protection is divine.
