

Annemarie Mostert

Media Liaison Representative for RFHA

Serving Since: 2012

Annemarie is a social entrepreneur at heart. She holds an education degree, is a founder, shareholder and director of various NGO's and business enterprises. She is a co-author and contributor for the Inspirational Women@Work, a book featuring 50 inspirational women in South Africa and endorsed by well-known women and organisations amongst others Mrs Graca Machel and Ms Oprah Winfrey. In October 2013 Annemarie received the Chayil Women of Influence Award in Canada, one of only three women in the world. She received various recognitions during 1994 – 1999 eg from Sowetan as Nation Builder and from UNESCO for Protection of Rights 1996. Annemarie is also one of 6 recipients of the Rotary International's "Responsible Business Awardees", recognised on 12 Nov 2016 at the Rotary open day at United Nations in New York. She is an active member of Women Presidents' Organization, Inc. (WPO), a nonprofit membership organisation for women presidents or CEO of multimillion-dollar companies.

Annemarie is the CEO of Mila Cleaning Service since 2012 and the founding member and CEO of Sešego Cares, a PBO established 12 years ago. Sešego Cares is one of the media partners of the RFHD programme in South Africa.

Rotarian Annemarie is a member of Rotary International for the past 22 years. She is married for 37 years to Hans, an accountant, together they have 3 children and 2 grand-children.