Administrative Details

REGISTRATION FEES ARE DUE BY May 27, 2017

Scholarships: Some congregations offer financial aid to members. If cost is an obstacle, please speak with an Elder.

Bring your own:

Bible, Psalter, notebook, pens, talent show props/equip., towels, sheets, blankets, pillows, toothbrush, toiletries, paper towels, swimsuits (1 piece or tankinis only), athletic apparel

Do not bring:

Scoters, skateboards, rollerblades, and bicycles

Check-in: Will be from 2-5pm, June 17th (Saturday). Dinner will be provided from 5-6pm CDT.

Unaccompanied attendance: Some youths may be permitted to attend without their parents; however, arrangements must be made and approval given in advance. Attendance will require responsible adult supervision. If you are considering this, please fill out your surrogate parent request on the attached Youth Medical Release Form.

Room Assignments: Will be based upon the following criteria (knowing your concerns early is helpful and appreciated):

- Size and needs of family
- Handicap or disability
- Full-timers have higher priority
- Early registration
- Special requests

High School attendees will be housed with their gender groups unless otherwise notified. Jr. High attendees will stay with their families.

Facilities & Area Attractions: Lindsey Wilson College has family friendly air-conditioned dormitories, cafeteria, comfortable meeting rooms and indoor recreational facilities, including a pool. The campus is ideally located amid the peaceful Kentucky countryside, close to Louisville, Lexington, and Nashville.

CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

Adult Program: Dr. Dennis J. Prutow Second RPC, Indianapolis, Indiana

Dr. Prutow has served as an Army Chaplain, a pastor in both the Orthodox Presbyterian Church and the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America, and the Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology at Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh, PA. He currently serves as a ruling elder at Second RP, Indianapolis, IN, where he also pursues other teaching interests. He and his wife, Erma, have three grown daughters and seven grandchildren.

High School Program: Dr. Calvin L. Troup Geneva College, Pennsylvania

Dr. Troup is a professor of Speech Communication and has served on the faculties of Penn State, Indiana University, and Duquesne University. He currently serves as the president of Geneva College. Dr. Troup and his wife, Amy, have four daughters, three sons-in-law, and two granddaughters. They are members of Grace Reformed Presbyterian Church, Gibsonia, Pennsylvania, where Dr. Troup serves as an elder.

Junior High Program: Joel Hart RPTS, Pennsylvania

God used the ministry of Reformed Presbyterian churches in Indianapolis and Lafayette to call Joel to Christ and point him toward pastoral ministry. Joel served as a pastoral intern at Second RPC (Indianapolis) before moving to Pittsburgh in 2016 to begin full-time pastoral training at RPTS. Lord-willing, he will graduate in May 2018 and then enter the pastorate. Joel and Orlena, his wife of five years, have three young children.
