Lunchtime Theology Lecture

Ashley Moyse, Post-Doctoral Fellow of Science and Theology at Regent, will be giving a public lunchtime lecture on February 1, entitled Responsibility for the Broken Body: Responding to the Physical Word of the Soul. Please feel free to bring your lunch to Room 100, 12:00-1:00 pm, to engage with this fascinating topic and a Q & A at the end. This lecture takes its cue from Jeffery Bishop's The Anticipatory Corpse: Medicine, Power, and the Care of the Dying (Notre Dame, 2011), which concluded with the question: "Might it not be that only theology can save medicine?" Accordingly, the lecture responds to this question, in part, and serves as an invitation to those engaged in the practice of medicine to respond to the presence of the human body.

Various and Sundry

New Show at Pacific Theatre:

Corleone: The Shakespearean Godfather Feb 3-25, 2017

What if Shakespeare wrote The Godfather?

Pacific Theatre is proud to partner with all-female company Classic Chic in their production of Corleone: The Shakespearean Godfather by David Mann. The Corleone family is on the top of the New York crime food chain, with Vito Corleone at the head of the family. That is until local drug baron Virgil "The Turk" Sollozzo attempts a coup. When it doesn't work out, a chain of corruption and murder is set in motion that only ends when son Michael, previously uninvolved in the “family business” exacts violent revenge and takes his place as the new king, spilling more blood than Macbeth. An epic tale of power, destiny, betrayal, family, and honour, could Coppola’s movie masterpiece actually be an Elizabethan tragedy? Tickets available at pacifictheatre.org

Australian House and Car Swap

Christian ministry couple in the Diocese of Sydney would like to swap homes with someone in Vancouver for 3 to 4 weeks between July-September 2017 or 2018. David and Maureen live in Gerringong, a sea-side village two hours South of Sydney. No mowing, no pets to look after. Alternatively, we could ‘house-sit’ if an exchange is not possible. We might have another retired ministry couple with us. Contact Bishop David & Maureen Mulready for more info at: 28muls@gmail.com
