World renowned scholar of the Reformation, Dr. Randall Zachman, examines a range of positions on the use of images in the worship, life, and piety of the Sixteenth Century. "PRAYER FOR ASIA - FEBRUARY 24, 1:00pm-2:00pm, Prayer Chapel

In the week leading up to Taste of the World, you are invited to join to spend intentional time praying for the world. We're ending the week of prayers with an exciting sharing from Brother Ian, who's currently working in Vietnam with OMF. He'll be sharing on his missionary work and the needs of his missions field, and invite us to pray together for Vietnam and Asia. So, let's take time to pause from papers or retreat from readings to pray."

Last week's answer: Douglas Adams, though expressing a sentiment that perhaps St. Augustine, a famous procrastinator, could agree with. He wrote, "God has promised forgiveness to your repentance, but He has not promised tomorrow to your procrastination.", and "Grant me chastity and continence—but not yet."
