Conference: Poverty and Violence: Doing Justice in a Post-Colonial World

On Saturday May 13th 2017, you are invited to join IJM Canada and Cristosal as we unpack what it means to do a justice in a post-colonial world. Both IJM and Cristosal have extensive first-hand experience in advancing human rights in Central and Latin America. Over the years we have learned that the interplay of poverty and violence is complex and dynamic and often has roots in colonialism. So what does it look like to do justice in a post-colonial world?

Hear from Noah Bullock (Executive Director, Cristosal), Celia Medrano (Chief Program Officer, Cristosal) and Kevin Dixon (VP of Operations, IJM Canada) as they share about inroads they are seeing on the frontlines of seeking justice. The day will conclude with a panel discussion that will challenge participants about what it means to be a seeker of justice in the midst of a broken world.

International Justice Mission is a global organization that protects the poor from violence throughout the developing world. IJM partners with local authorities to rescue victims of violence, bring criminals to justice, restore survivors, and strengthen justice systems. International Justice Mission Canada shares this mission. The largest organization of its kind, IJM combats slavery, sex trafficking, sexual violence, police brutality, property grabbing and other forms of violence in nearly 20 communities throughout Africa, Latin America, South Asia and Southeast Asia.

Journey 101 April 13 - May 18

New Life Chinese Lutheran Church in Vancouver.

Journey 101 is an introductory look at healing and aimed at helping individuals understand the issues they will have to walk through in their journey, embrace the idea of process and move in the direction of where they can begin deeper healing work.

Who's it for?

As an introductory discipleship program, Journey 101 is available to anyone who is interested in beginning a process of healing.

What's involved?

Journey 101 is a six-week program that involves times of teaching, stories and small groups, where leaders help participants identify their issues, look at some of the realities of the healing journey, recognize that Jesus and others walk with us, and understand that ultimately our journey enables us to know God and others in deeper ways.

Vocational Discernment

At that "What am I doing with my life moment?" Springboard can help! Springboard is a holistic & interactive vocational discernment workshop. Lead by Regent alumni and career coach, Amy Wilson-Roberts. Springboard will leave you with practical next steps to get you moving forward. NEXT ONE: April 22! More info on amightyoak.ca or e-mail amy@amightyoak.ca

Pacific Theatre Presents: TESTAMENT

Like Christmas Presence, but without Christmas! Fact is, Jesus grew up – and during Passion Week, we're going to dig into those songs and stories. With different guest musicians each night and songs by artists like Woody Guthrie, Patty Griffin, Sam Cooke, Tom Waits, and the Bruces (Springsteen and Cockburn).

Opera Production

As part of the upcoming Vancouver Opera Festival happening from April 28-May 13, we will be putting on a brand-new production of Jake Heggie's Opera, Dead Man Walking, based on the book of the same name by Sister Helen Prejean (which also inspired a popular movie with Susan Sarandon and Sean Penn). This work is a memoir of Sister Helen Prejean's experience counselling a convict on death row and raises important discussion about the American death penalty.

Vancouver Opera has a special promotion running until April 10th, which allows patrons under the age of 40 to attend this opera for $40 (potentially a $125 savings from the regular ticket price). ("6593" online at <http://www.vancouveropera.ca> or at our ticket centre by phone: 604-683-0222) with your student card to receive this promotional rate.
