

Tempest

Peter Henry Phillips

I'm a slacker, I'm loath
In you only I can trust

I'm a bolt, you're a socket
I'm a whore, you're a princess

We will shine our survival
We belong to us into silence

I'm a bolt, you're a socket
I'm a hore, you're a princess
I'm a sailor on a witness and just scared it might happen again
I will hold on to the gate, leave no one to be a target
We will shine our survival, we belong to us and to silence
Us into silence

There's a path for us to walk on
There's a path for us to walk on

I'm a bolt, you're a socket
I'm a whore, you're a princess
I'm a sailor on a witness and just scared it might happen again
I will hold on to the gate, leave no one to be a target
We will shine our survival, we belong to us and to silence
Us into silence
