

Interest Session #1: "Passport to the World of Leonard Bernstein" Peter Bay, presenter

Monday • February 12, 2018 • 7pm
University United Methodist Church - Sanctuary
2409 Guadalupe Street • Austin, Texas 78705

B100A Visionary, Peter Bay, is the tour guide for the evening as he leads us on a journey into the musical world of MASS. We will explore its compositional styles & dramatic impact, while learning more about MASS's place as a pinnacle in Bernstein's musical legacy. In addition, this session will provide more perspective into the life of Leonard Bernstein as one of America's most influential musicians.

MAP TO VENUE (here)

PARKING:

There are a limited number of free parking spots available in two locations for our B100A attendees:

UUMC CHURCH PARKING LOT

Located on the southeast corner of 25th and Guadalupe streets.

PLATINUM PARKING LOT:

Located on the southwest corner of 25th Street and Guadalupe streets.

Note: For the Platinum Parking lot, A Bernstein representative will be standing in the lot to hand you a parking pass which you must display on your dashboard to avoid towing.

ADDITIONAL PAID PARKING

If both lots are full, additional paid parking can be found in the UT San Antonio Garage Parking or metered street parking.

ACCESSIBILITY

A wheelchair ramp is available at the south entrance of UUMC on 24th Street. To access, please drive through the alley, from north to south, or from 25th Street to 24th Street, stop at the southeast corner of the church and let people in wheelchairs or walkers out of the car. The ramp is a few feet away from this corner. Also, an area of the church parking lot adjacent to Heinsohn Hall is reserved at all times for use by persons of limited mobility.
