

Intro: De'Anna Nunez

De'Anna Nunez is a Clinical Hypnotherapist, Performance Coach & Trainer. Her company is Vitalmind, a self development and peak performance firm working with individuals and organizations who want to maximize their strengths while living and working in a healthy culture. Through trainings, keynotes and on-going programs her work focuses on the neuroscience of sustainable change. De'Anna has developed a health initiative program that has, so far, helped women in twenty-four states lose forty to one hundred twenty pounds, while others have quit a life-long addiction to cigarettes in a program developed for the California Department of Health and Human Services. De'Anna herself has achieved running twenty nine marathons utilizing the very subconscious re-wiring she teaches in her programs. Her unique presentations have caught the attention of top Ceo's, Five Star Generals and Governors alike. She has presented to Fortune 500 companies such as Aflac, Mercury Insurance, Coldwell Banker and Harley Davidson and has contracted with the U.S. Marine Corps for over a decade.

Today, you'll be learning the Science Behind Your Awesomeness as she shows you how to supercharge your subconscious and power up your focus for business and life. Like your favorite Jedi, her goal is to engage you to feel your force within.

Please welcome to the stage...De'Anna Nunez.
