Gospel Acclamation

LBW 71

1 An - gels we have heard on high, sweet - ly sing - ing o'er the plains,

Refrain

Glo - - - ri - a

- - - ri - a in ex - cel - sis De - o.

The musical score is written on five staves in a single system. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The first two staves contain the main text of the acclamation. The third staff is the start of the refrain, marked with a slur and the word 'Refrain' below it. The fourth and fifth staves continue the refrain. The lyrics are placed below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

The Apostles' Creed

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended into hell.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come again to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The petitions conclude:

Give us this day our daily bread;

Peace

A Gracious Lord, our Advent journey has culminated in this day. As we celebrate the coming of Christ, open our eyes to see your wonder, open our hearts to know your joy, and open our lips to tell of your glory. For to us a Child has been born, to us a Savior has been given. We pray this in the name of Christ, our newborn King.

C Amen. It's God's work. Our hands.

P The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C And also with you.

P Let us greet each other as a sign of that peace.
