We Are Stanford’s Guest
Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 18, 2020

Gathering
“Come, My Way, My Truth, My Life”

Gloria from “Mass of St. Ann”

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

First Reading  Isaiah 45:1, 4–6

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him and strip kings of their robes, to open doors before him—and the gates shall not be closed:

“For the sake of my servant Jacob, and Israel my chosen, I call you by your name, I surname you, though you do not know me. I am the Lord, and there is no other; besides me there is no god. I arm you, though you do not know me, so that all may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is no one besides me; I am the Lord, and there is no other.”

First announced October 4

* Reading Group

We won’t meet during the six weeks in which small prayer groups will be meeting. Our next meeting is Monday, November 16th at 7:30pm to discuss John L’Heureux’s novel The Beggar’s Pawn. John was a longtime member of the Stanford community and director of the Creative Writing Program. He finished this novel, which takes place at Stanford, shortly before his death last year, and it is one of his best, beginning as an often funny social satire and deepening into a meditation on love and loss and death. The Zoom link for the meeting will be sent out closer to the date. Anyone not on the mailing list who wishes to join the conversation should contact Albert Gelpi (agelpi@stanford.edu).

The Whole Language: The Power of Extravagant Tenderness

A virtual retreat with Fr. Greg Boyle, S.J., from the Jesuit Retreat Center of Los Altos

October 30–November 1, 2020
First announced October 11

* High School/Confirmation Prep Sessions

Small group online setting. Meets calendared Sunday mornings 11:00-noon. Scripture study, social justice advocacy, prayer and reflection, learning how to put faith into daily life situations. Opportunities for outreach! For info, contact Teresa Pleins (tpleins@stanford.edu).

Psalm (4:30 Live Stream) “One Day” (Ps. 97)

1) God the Lord is king; all the shores on earth
laugh and shout for joy (laugh and shout for joy).
He lives in clouds and dark;
righteousness and truth support his royal throne.
Fire sweeps before him; it burns away his enemies,
it flashes across the earth.
The whole of the earth has seen it (the whole of the earth has seen it)
The earth writhing and groaning like a woman in labour (like a woman in labour).

2) Mountains melt like wax wherever God appears;
Lord and master on earth (Lord and master on earth).
The heavens have proclaimed; the pagans come to see this love in all its splendor (this love in all its splendor).
Shame upon them all who bow down before false gods,
who pride themselves on idols;
must not all the gods bow to the ground before him, kneel down before our God (kneel down before our God)?

3) Zion hears, and Judah’s cities shout for joy because you are their savior (because you are their savior).
You are, O Lord, most high, much greater than all the gods on earth (than all the gods on earth).
All those who hate evil are loved by God the Lord;
their hearts are in God’s keeping (their hearts are in God’s keeping).
Light is sown like seed for God’s beloved friends;
rejoice now, friends, be glad;
proclaim this holy name (proclaim this holy name),
above all other names (above all other names).

Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 1:1–5ab

From Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
Grace to you and peace.

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labour of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction.

Gospel

Matthew 22:15–21

When the chief priests and Pharisees had heard the parables, they realized that Jesus was speaking about them.

Then the Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?”

But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the test.” And they brought him a denarius.

Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?” They answered, “The emperor’s.” Then he said to them, “Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Memorial Acclamationquire from “Mass of Creation”

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.

Great Amen from “Mass of Creation”

A-men, a-men, a-men. A-men, a-men, a-men.

Agnus Dei from “Mass of Creation”

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

To repeat (as needed)

Last time

world, grant us peace.

Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus, you promised to be with your church until the end of time. Help us to believe that you are with us now in our hour of need.

We long to experience your presence more deeply and more intimately, even when we can’t gather together as your church to celebrate the Eucharist.

Deepen our belief that you are present within us and that you bind us together in communion with you.

May our communion with you and one another move us to reach out to others, especially those who seek justice.

We know that you abide with those whom you created. Never let us forget your love. Amen.
Join the Live-Stream Choir!

At the end of our live streamed Masses, singers and instrumentalists from all over the world join together to lead our community in song.

Would you like to "join" the choir?

It’s not difficult and you don’t have to be a recording star to join in. The music is pre-recorded and then mixed together, so your voice is blended with others.

God is calling us in many different ways these days. Perhaps Live-stream choir is a way to help others pray through song about mercy, grace, forgiveness, and hope.

Communion “No Body But Yours”

Christ has no body, no body, no body now but yours;
No hands, no feet on Earth but yours.

Yours are the eyes with which he looks,
He looks compassion on this world.
Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good.
Yours are the hands with which he blesses all the Earth.

Yours are the hands; yours are the feet; yours are the eyes.
You are his body.

Christ has no body, no body, no body now but yours.
