We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT
DECEMBER 13, 2020

Gathering  “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel”

Words: ‘O Antiphons, Latin, 9th c., tr. by John Mason Neale, 1818-1866; Music: Chant, Mode I; Processionale, French, 15th cent.; adapt. by Thomas Helmore, 1811-1890.

Un - til the Son of God ap - pear.
And teach us in her ways to go.
And give them vic - t'ry o'er the grave.
And be for us our King of Peace.

Re - joice! Re - joice! Em - man - u - el Shall come to you,  O Is - ra - el.
First Reading: Isaiah 61:1–2a, 10–11

The servant of the Lord said:
“The spirit of the Lord God is upon me,
because the Lord has anointed me;
he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed,
to bind up the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives,
and release to the prisoners;
to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favour.
“I will greatly rejoice in the Lord,
my whole being shall exult in my God;
for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
he has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland,
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
“For as the earth brings forth its shoots,
and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up,
so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise
to spring up before all the nations.”

(spooken response)

R: My soul rejoices in my God.

My soul magnifies the Lord
and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour,
for he has looked with favour on the lowliness of his servant.
Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed.
(R.)

For the Mighty One has done great things for me,
and holy is his name.
His mercy is for those who fear him
from generation to generation.
(R.)

The Lord has filled the hungry with good things
and sent the rich away empty.
He has helped his servant Israel,
in remembrance of his mercy.
(R.)

Psalm (4:30 Live Stream) “Magnificat”

1) Porque ha mirado la humillación de su pobre sierva,
desde hoy dichosa me llamarán
por las maravillas que hizo en mi
[For he has seen this poor servant's humiliation from today forth they shall call me joyful
for the wonders He has worked in me.]

2) Y su misericordia llega a sus fieles
de generación en generación.
Él hace proezas con su brazo,
dispersa a los soberbios de corazón

3) The Lord’s mercy is from age to age
to all those who fear him.
He has shown might with his arm,
dispersed the arrogant of mind and heart.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5:16–24

My brothers and sisters, rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Do not quench the Spirit. Do not despise the words of prophets, but test everything; hold fast to what is good; abstain from every form of evil.

May the God of peace himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept sound and blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do this.

Gospel:
John 1:6–8, 19–28

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light.

This is the testimony given by John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?” He confessed and did not deny it, but confessed, “I am not the Messiah.” And they asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” He said, “I am not.” “Are you the prophet?” He answered, “No.” Then they said to him, “Who are you? Let us have an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?” He said, “I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, ‘Make straight the way of the Lord,’ as the prophet Isaiah said. Now they had been sent from the Pharisees. They asked him, “Why then are you baptizing if you are neither the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?” John answered them, “I baptize with water. Among you stands one whom you do not know, the one who is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandal.” This took place in Bethany across the Jordan where John was baptizing.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus, you promised to be with your church until the end of time. Help us to believe that you are with us now in our hour of need.

We long to experience your presence more deeply and more intimately, even when we can’t gather together as your church to celebrate the Eucharist.

Deepen our belief that you are present within us and that you bind us together in communion with you.

May our communion with you and one another move us to reach out to others, especially those who seek justice.

We know that you abide with those whom you created. Never let us forget your love. Amen.
Communion  “People Look East”

1. People look East. The time is near.
2. Furrors be glad. Though earth is bare.
3. Stars, keep the watch. When night is dim.
4. Angels announce on this great feast.

Of the crowning of the year.
One more seed is planted there:
One more light the bowl shall brim,
Him who cometh from the East.

Make your house fair as you are able,
Give up your strength the seed to nourish,
Shining beyond the frosty weather,
Set every peak and valley humming.

Trim the hearth and set the table.
That in course the flow’r may flourish.
Bright as sun and moon together.
With the word, the Lord is coming.

People look East and sing today:
Love the Guest is on the way.
Love the Rose is on the way.
Love the Star is on the way.
Love the Lord is on the way.

Words: Eleanor Farjeon. Music: Besançon carol.

Join the Live-Stream Choir!

At the end of our live streamed Masses, singers and instrumentalists from all over the world join together to lead our community in song.

Would you like to “join” the choir? It’s not difficult and you don’t have to be a recording star to join in. The music is pre-recorded and then mixed together, so your voice is blended with others.

God is calling us in many different ways these days. Perhaps Live-stream choir is a way to help others pray through song about mercy, grace, forgiveness, and hope.

Recessional “Isaiah 61”

1) The spirit of the Lord God is upon me because the Lord has anointed me; He has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the broken-hearted. To proclaim liberty to the captives and release to the prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the Lord and a day of vindication by our God.

Refrain:

So will the Lord God make justice and praise, justice and praise, justice and praise, spring up before the nations.

2) I rejoice heartily in the Lord. In my God is the joy of my soul; For he has clothed me with a robe of salvation, and wrapped me in a mantle of justice, like a bridegroom adorned with a diadem, like a bride bedecked with her jewels. As the earth springs forth its plants and a garden makes its growth spring up.
