We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Gathering “Be Thou My Vision”

Words: ancient Irish, translated by Mary E. Byrne, verse setting by Eleanor Hull. Music: Slane, traditional Irish tune.
Date changed

* New CRS Chapter Launch Event

Friday, January 29, 3:00pm-5:30pm
Online via Zoom
See weekly email or contact lalonso@stanford.edu for meeting ID and passcode.

Join us as we launch our new Catholic Relief Services chapter. A chapter is a community of people committed to serving the poor and ending global poverty, through action that contributes to CRS’ mission to create transformational change for our global human family. Come to the launch to pray, reflect and learn how you are called to serve the common good with fellow community members. Have questions? Email Lourdes, lalonso@stanford.edu.

New announcement

* Reading Group

Our next meeting will be on Monday Feb. 22nd at 7:30pm (Pacific) via Zoom to discuss Pope Francis’s new book Let Us Dream: The Path to a Better Future, available in book form or on Kindle. Francis’ critique of the current social and political crisis and plea for reform of political institutions and social policy for the common good is an urgent call as we seek to move to a more just and more compassionate society in our country. Anyone not on the mailing list who wants to join the conversation should contact Albert Gelpi (agelpi@stanford.edu). The Zoom link will be sent to the list closer to the date of the meeting.

Gloria
from “Mass of St. Ann”

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

First Reading
Jonah 3:1–5, 10

The word of the Lord came to Jonah, saying, “Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city,
and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.”
So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh,
according to the word of the Lord.

Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city,
a three days’ walk across.
Jonah began to go into the city, going a day’s walk.
And he cried out,
“Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!”
And the people of Nineveh believed God;
they proclaimed a fast,
and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw what they did,
how they turned from their evil ways,
God changed his mind about the calamity
that he had said he would bring upon them;
and he did not do it.

Online Community Road Trip: Proclaim the Promise

This year it’s really easy to enjoy the big annual Catholic Religious Education Congress, February 18-21. Because it’s online, it’s easy to attend and doesn’t require a commitment to the whole weekend. There will be a combination of live talks by nationally-known speakers, live Masses celebrating different cultures, and workshops available on demand throughout the weekend. English, Spanish, and Vietnamese are employed, and there’s even a track for high school students.

Undergrads and grad students, if you sign up at https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdjlkpqQa955-O2EuR6KTL-NuK_J0oJ9F6h2KYGvifflPnP3uQA/viewform?usp=sf_link by Friday, February 12, the Catholic Community at Stanford will register you and cover your fee.

Permanent community members, including high schoolers, can register themselves at https://recongress.org/. But then sign up at https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdjlkpqQa955-O2EuR6KTL-NuK_J0oJ9F6h2KYGvifflPnP3uQA/viewform?usp=sf_link as well so that our staff can help our community members connect with each other.

This is the largest and best gathering of its kind in the world. Don’t miss out. We’ll have opportunities during and after the conference for our community members to discuss with each other what they’ve learned and experienced.

Psalm (1:00 Outdoor Mass) (Ps. 25)

(spooken response)
R: Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Make me to know your ways, O Lord;
teach me your paths.
Lead me in your truth, and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation.
(R.)

Be mindful of your mercy, O Lord, and of your steadfast love,
for they have been from of old.
According to your steadfast love remember me,
for your sake of your goodness, O Lord!
(R.)

Good and upright is the Lord; therefore he instructs sinners in the way.
He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.
(R.)

Psalm (4:30 Live Stream) “To You, O Lord” (Ps. 25)

Words adapted from Psalm 25; Words and Music by Bob Hurd

1) Make me to know your ways, Lord; set my feet upon your pathways.
Teach me to walk in your truth and lead me, for you are my God, my savior.

2) Good is the Lord and upright, graciously showing the way to sinners, leading the humble into paths of justice, guiding the poor and lowly.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 7:29–31

Brothers and sisters,
the appointed time has grown short;
from now on,
let even those who have wives be as though they had none,
and those who mourn as though they were not mourning,
and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing,
and those who buy as though they had no possessions,
and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it.
For the present form of this world is passing away.

Their Stories: You’re the Hero

Hopefully you’ve had a chance to read our email that shares our students’, alumni, and community members’ stories. If you haven’t read the stories yet, you can pick up the link to them on our home page at stanfordcatholic.org

Marriage Preparation

Were you going to be married at Stanford’s Memorial Church or were you being prepared by the Catholic Community at Stanford to be married elsewhere but now are unable to find a wedding prep program? If so, contact Fr. Xavier (xavierop@stanford.edu) about the possibility of joining our online program.

St. Anthony’s Padua Dining Room

During this time of pandemic, CC@S continues to help prepare take-away hot meals for those in need at St. Anthony’s Padua Dining Room in Menlo Park (http://paduadining-room.com) every first and fourth Saturday of the month. However, to reduce the risk of virus transmission we are not able to accept new volunteers, currently. Please stay tuned for volunteer opportunities to resume. For further information, please contact gary.glover@stanford.edu (650-302-6902).

Gospel

Mark 1:14–20

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.”

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen.

And Jesus said to them, “Follow me and I will make you fishers of people.”

And immediately they left their nets and followed him.

As Jesus went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets.

Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
Offertory

If you have found spiritual encouragement from our virtual Sunday Mass, please consider making an offering. CC@S relies on individual donations from supporters all over the country to fund Sunday Mass, spiritual programs for students, faculty, staff and other permanent community members.

Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus, you promised to be with your church until the end of time. Help us to believe that you are with us now in our hour of need.

We long to experience your presence more deeply and more intimately, even when we can't gather together as your church to celebrate the Eucharist.

Deepen our belief that you are present within us and that you bind us together in communion with you.

May our communion with you and one another move us to reach out to others, especially those who seek justice.

We know that you abide with those whom you created. Never let us forget your love. Amen.
Communion “What Wondrous Love Is This?” (instrumental)

Communion “Will You Come and Follow Me?”

* Save the Date: Tuesday, February 16—All Community Mardi Gras Party

6:30pm-7:30pm (Pacific)
We will be gathering to play games and get a chance to visit with one another—this year over Zoom! We will post a sign-up in the coming weeks.

Upon signing up, you will be sent the Zoom links to the party as well as the pick up locations and times for a swag bag if you would like to receive one (sorry we can not mail the bags). Please mark your calendars and we look forward to celebrating with you before we begin the 40 days of Lent!
Join the Live-Stream Choir!

At the end of our live streamed Masses, singers and instrumentalists from all over the world join together to lead our community in song.

Would you like to “join” the choir?
It’s not difficult and you don’t have to be a recording star to join in. The music is pre-recorded and then mixed together, so your voice is blended with others.

God is calling us in many different ways these days. Perhaps Live-stream choir is a way to help others pray through song about mercy, grace, forgiveness, and hope.
