We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Gathering “Psalm 23”

Words and Music: Tom Conry, © 1988, TEAM publications. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.
First Reading  Acts 4:7–12

While Peter and John were speaking to the people about the resurrection of Jesus, the captain of the temple arrested them and placed them in custody.

The next day the rulers, elders and scribes assembled. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, “By what power or by what name did you do this?”

Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead.

“This Jesus is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.” There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.”

Psalm (Outdoor Masses) (Ps. 118)

(spojen response)

R: The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his steadfast love endures forever! It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in mortals. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in princes. (R.)

I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation. The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. This is the Lord's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes. (R.)

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. We bless you from the house of the Lord. You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God, I will extol you. O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever. (R.)

Psalm (4:30 Live Stream) “Let Us Rejoice” (Ps. 118)

This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad; this is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad!

1) Give thanks to the Lord, for God is good; God's mercy endures for ever; Let the house of Israel say: “God's mercy endures for ever.”

2) The hand of the Lord has struck with pow'r, God's right hand is exalted, I shall not die but live anew, declaring the works of the Lord.

Second Reading 1 John 3:1–2

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are.
The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.
Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed.
What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is.

Gospel John 10:11–18

Jesus said to the Pharisees:
“I am the good shepherd.
The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.
The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them.
The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep.
“I am the good shepherd.
I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father.
And I lay down my life for the sheep.
I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold.
I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd.
“For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again.
No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord.
I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again.
I have received this command from my Father.”

* Lamplighters: Heidi Cartan and Madison Pobis

Monday, May 3, 7:00pm–8:00pm (Pacific) online via Zoom—see weekly email for meeting info
Join us for a conversation between CC@S community members Heidi Cartan, founder of Common Roots Farm, and Madison Pobis, Environmental Communicator.

There is a wealth of experiences and stories in our own CC@S community—stories that inspire and stories that enlighten.

This 20-30 minute short talk will be followed by an opportunity to meet in small groups and then to ask Heidi and Madison questions, all in under an hour.

Stories are a wonderful way to connect us and to support each other along our path of faith. Let’s let the light shine.

First announced April 18

* Reading Group

We’ll meet on Monday, May 17th at 7:30pm to discuss several short stories by Flannery O’Connor: “A Good Man Is Hard to Find,” “A Temple of the Holy Ghost,” “Greenleaf,” “Everything That Rises Must Converge,” “Revelation,” and “Parker’s Back.” The first three are from her first collection of stories A Good Man Is Hard to Find, and the second three are from the second collection Everything That Rises Must Converge. All six stories are in her Complete Stories. All of those volumes are available in libraries and in paperback and Kindle editions. A Zoom link will be sent closer to the date. Anyone who wants to be added to the mailing list should contact Albert Gelpi (agelpi@stanford.edu).
Offertory

If you have found spiritual encouragement from our virtual Sunday Mass, please consider making an offering. CC@S relies on individual donations from supporters all over the country to fund Sunday Mass, spiritual programs for students, faculty, staff and other permanent community members.

Baptismal Creed

Offertory “I Will Arise”

1) Come, thou font of ev'ry blessing, move my heart to sing thy grace.
   Streams of mercy, never ceasing, call forth songs of loudest praise.

2) Teach me songs, melodious songs, as sung by flaming tongues above.
   Praise the mount! I’m fixed upon it, songs of thy redeeming love.

3) Here I’ll raise my song of praise. Hither by thy help I’ve come.
   And I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home.

Agnus Dei from “Mass of Creation”

 Choir

 + Assembly

 Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

 Last time

 world, grant us peace.

 Memorial Acclamation from “Mass of Creation”

 When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.

 CRS Rice Bowl

 We prayed, fasted and gave alms and now we rejoice because Christ is risen! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl challenges us as we begin the Easter season to share the joy of the risen Lord with our sisters and brothers around the world. Please turn in your CRS Rice Bowl at Mass or, better yet, donate online at our CC@S-CRS page: https://crs.donordrive.com/team/5842

 CRS Action of the Month

 Take Action with us this month! Join the CRS-Stanford Chapter by emailing your representatives to advocate for larger funding allocation for foreign humanitarian aid so organizations like CRS could make an impact around the world. Background information and tips on formulating your email can be found on the links at our website or directly in this pdf: https://www.crs.org/sites/default/files/crs_action_sheet_2021_april_english.pdf
Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus, we know that you are always with us. Help us to remember your presence within us as we await the day when we can gather in one place to celebrate the Eucharist and share communion.

May our communion with you and one another move us to reach out to others, especially those who are sick and those who seek justice.

May our remembrance of the wonderful saving mystery of your life, death, and resurrection during this holy season of Easter renew your church and rebirth each of us in hope. Amen.

Join the Live-Stream Choir!

At the end of our live streamed Masses, singers and instrumentalists from all over the world join together to lead our community in song.

Would you like to “join” the choir?

It’s not difficult and you don’t have to be a recording star to join in. The music is pre-recorded and then mixed together, so your voice is blended with others.

God is calling us in many different ways these days. Perhaps Live-stream choir is a way to help others pray through song about mercy, grace, forgiveness, and hope.
