We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER — MAY 2, 2021

Gathering “Alleluia! Love Is Alive”

First Reading  Acts 9:26–31

When Saul had come to Jerusalem,
he attempted to join the disciples;
and they were all afraid of him,
for they did not believe that he was a disciple.
But Barnabas took him,
brought him to the apostles,
and described for them how on the road he had seen the Lord,
who had spoken to him,
and how in Damascus Saul had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus.
So Saul went in and out among them in Jerusalem,
speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.
He spoke and argued with the Hellenists;
but they were attempting to kill him.
When the believers learned of it,
they brought Saul down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.
Meanwhile the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and was built up.
Living in the fear of the Lord
and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it increased in numbers.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

Psalm (Outdoor Masses) (Ps. 22)

(spoken response)

R: I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

My vows I will pay before those who fear him.

The poor shall eat and be satisfied;

those who seek him shall praise the Lord.

May your hearts live forever.

(R.)

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord;

and all the families of the nations shall worship before him.

To him, indeed, shall all who sleep in the earth bow down;

before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.

(R.)

I shall live for him and posterity will serve him.

Future generations will be told about the Lord, and proclaim his deliverance to a people yet unborn, saying that he has done it.

(R.)

Psalm (4:30 Live Stream)  “Aleluya” (Ps. 118)

1) Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endures for ever;

Let the house of Israel say: “His mercy endures for ever.”

2) The right hand of the Lord has struck with power;

the right hand of the Lord is exalted,

I shall not die but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

3) The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

By the Lord has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes.

Second Reading  1 John 3:18–24

Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and God knows everything.

Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases God.

And this is God's commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

Gospel Acclamation “Easter Alleluia”

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia!

Gospel  John 15:1–8

Jesus said to his disciples:
“I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower.
He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit.
Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit.
You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you.

“Abide in me as I abide in you.
Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me.
I am the vine, you are the branches.
Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing.

“Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.

“If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.
My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

* Reading Group

We’ll meet on Monday, May 17th at 7:30pm to discuss several short stories by Flannery O’Connor: “A Good Man Is Hard to Find,” “A Temple of the Holy Ghost,” “Greenleaf,” “Everything That Rises Must Converge,” “Revelation,” and “Parker’s Back.” The first three are from her first collection of stories A Good Man Is Hard to Find, and the second three are from the second collection Everything That Rises Must Converge. All six stories are in her Complete Stories. All of those volumes are available in libraries and in paperback and Kindle editions. A Zoom link will be sent closer to the date. Anyone who wants to be added to the mailing list should contact Albert Gelpi (agelpi@stanford.edu).

* Lamplighters: Heidi Cartan and Madison Pobis

Monday, May 3, 7:00pm–8:00pm (Pacific) online via Zoom—see weekly email for meeting info

Join us for a conversation between CC@S community members Heidi Cartan, founder of Common Roots Farm, and Madison Pobis, Environmental Communicator.

There is a wealth of experiences and stories in our own CC@S community—stories that inspire and stories that enlighten.

This 20-30 minute short talk will be followed by an opportunity to meet in small groups and then to ask Heidi and Madison questions, all in under an hour.

Stories are a wonderful way to connect us and to support each other along our path of faith. Let’s let the light shine.

Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus, we know that you are always with us. Help us to remember your presence within us as we await the day when we can gather in one place to celebrate the Eucharist and share communion.

May our communion with you and one another move us to reach out to others, especially those who are sick and those who seek justice.

May our remembrance of the wonderful saving mystery of your life, death, and resurrection during this holy season of Easter renew your church and rebirth each of us in hope. Amen.

Communion (4:30 Live Stream) “Taste and See”

Refrain:

Taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

1) I will bless the Lord at all times. His praise shall always be on my lips; my soul shall glory in the Lord; for He has been so good to me.
2) Glorify the Lord with me. Together let us all praise His name. I called the Lord and He answered me; from all my troubles he set me free.

Join the Live-Stream Choir!

At the end of our live streamed Masses, singers and instrumentalists from all over the world join together to lead our community in song.

Would you like to “join” the choir?

It’s not difficult and you don’t have to be a recording star to join in. The music is pre-recorded and then mixed together, so your voice is blended with others.

God is calling us in many different ways these days. Perhaps Live-stream choir is a way to help others pray through song about mercy, grace, forgiveness, and hope.
