We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Gloria

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

New announcement

* A Tear & A Blessing from the Pastor

I can’t imagine the Catholic Community without Lourdes Alonso. Some of you have already heard but sadly Lourdes Alonso and John Aguayo are moving to Austin, Texas after Commencement. While it is a new adventure for them, it is a painful loss for us. Her smile has welcomed so many, her passion for justice has enlightened many a mind, her compassion has dried so many tears and her counsel has been a guiding star. There is no adequate way to thank her for her faith and joy, other than to say we love her.

John’s and Lourdes’ generosity have fed us, would that we could have given them the ability to remain in California. They had been searching for a house for so long, but today’s market is a wall. A new work offering for John simply has to be seized. Ministry is a gift. They have given and given. Their marriage has inspired many. We will be poorer for the loss of this most amazing couple.

Vaya con Dios… you take our hearts with you!

—Fr. Xavier

First Reading

On Peter’s arrival at Caesarea,
Cornelius, a centurion of the Roman cohort, met him,
and falling at his feet, worshipped him.
But Peter made him get up, saying,
“Stand up; I am only a mortal.”

Then Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius, “I truly understand that God shows no partiality,
but in every nation anyone who fears him
and does what is right is acceptable to him.”

While Peter was still speaking,
the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word.
The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God.

Then Peter said,
“Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?”
So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.
Then they invited him to stay for several days.

New announcement

Lamplighters: Jesse Sullivan and Alan Chiu

Monday, May 24, 7:00pm–8:00pm (Pacific) online via Zoom—see weekly email for meeting info

Join us for a conversation between CC@S community members Jesse Sullivan, Alter Global Founder, and Alan Chiu, Enya.ai CEO.

There is a wealth of experiences and stories in our own CC@S community—stories that inspire and stories that enlighten.

This 20-30 minute short talk will be followed by an opportunity to meet in small groups and then to ask Jesse and Alan questions, all in under an hour.

Stories are a wonderful way to connect us and to support each other along our path of faith. Let’s let the light shine.

Psalm (Outdoor Masses) (Ps. 98)

(spoken response)

R: The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

O sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvellous things. His right hand and his holy arm have brought him victory. (R.)

The Lord has made known his victory; he has revealed his vindication in the sight of the nations. He has remembered his steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel. (R.)

All the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God. Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises. (R.)

Psalm (4:30 Live Stream) “Aleluya” (Ps. 118)

[Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endures for ever; Let the house of Israel say: “His mercy endures for ever.”]

2) La diestra del Señor es poderosa, la diestra del Señor es excelsa. No he de morir, viviré, para contar las hazañas del Señor.

[The right hand of the Lord is powerful; the right hand of the Lord is exalted, I shall not die but live, and declare the works of the Lord.]

3) The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the Lord has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes.

Second Reading 1 John 4:7–10

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.

God’s love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins.

Gospel Acclamation “Easter Alleluia”

Gospel John 15:9–17

Jesus said to his disciples: “As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. “I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. “You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. “You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.”

Infant/Child Baptisms

We are currently scheduling baptisms for infants/children for our registered parishioners. If you are seeking baptism for your child, please contact Teresa Pleins, tpleins@stanford.edu. The baptisms will be held outdoors off-campus in a lovely garden area.

Pre-Cana Preparation

Are you getting married in your home parish or elsewhere and cannot find a required pre-marriage workshop or an Engaged Encounter weekend available? If you are a student, faculty, staff member or registered member of CC@S (including alumni—all must be registered as CC@S members for at least a year) and are in need of pre-marriage prep, contact Father Xavier Lavagetto (xavierop@stanford.edu) about the possibility of doing an online program. For further information about the canonical prep requirements for a Catholic wedding, please visit our website.

Reading Group

We’ll meet on Monday, May 17th at 7:30pm to discuss several short stories by Flannery O’Connor: “A Good Man Is Hard to Find,” “A Temple of the Holy Ghost,” “Greenleaf,” “Everything That Rises Must Converge,” “Revelation,” and “Parker’s Back.” The first three are from her first collection of stories A Good Man Is Hard to Find, and the second three are from the second collection Everything That Rises Must Converge. All six stories are in her Complete Stories. All of those volumes are available in libraries and in paperback and Kindle editions. A Zoom link will be sent closer to the date. Anyone who wants to be added to the mailing list should contact Albert Gelpi (agelpi@stanford.edu).

Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus, we know that you are always with us. Help us to remember your presence within us as we await the day when we can gather in one place to celebrate the Eucharist and share communion.

May our communion with you and one another move us to reach out to others, especially those who are sick and those who seek justice.

May our remembrance of the wonderful saving mystery of your life, death, and resurrection during this holy season of Easter renew your church and rebirth each of us in hope. Amen.
