Their Stories: You’re the Hero

Hopefully you’ve had a chance to read our email that shares our students’, alumni, and community members’ stories. If you haven’t read the stories yet, you can pick up the link to them on our home page at stanfordcatholic.org

We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Ways to Give

BY MAIL: Send your donation to:

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY — MAY 30, 2021

Gathering “Rain Down”

Gloria from “Mass of St. Ann”

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.
Moses assembled the people to remind them how the Lord had spoken out of the fire while they stood at the foot of the mountain.

He said:

“Ask now about former ages, long before your own, ever since the day that God created human beings on the earth; ask from one end of heaven to the other: ‘has anything so great as this ever happened or has its like ever been heard of?’

“Has any people ever heard the voice of a god speaking out of a fire, as you have heard, and lived? Or has any god ever attempted to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by terrifying displays of power, as the Lord your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

“So acknowledge today and take to heart that the Lord is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other. Keep his statutes and his commandments, which I am commanding you today for your own well-being and that of your descendants after you, so that you may long remain in the land that the Lord your God is giving you for all time.”

Catholic Leadership Skills Series

Wednesdays at 7:30pm (Pacific)

Upcoming sessions:

- Critical Conversations & Empathy, June 2nd
- Leading Teams & Building Team Culture, June 6th

Open to all members of the Catholic Community at Stanford. These sessions will include theory, testimonies, and practice of the skills that you need to be a great Catholic leader. These are lifelong skills that will help in many aspects of your life at and beyond Stanford.

You can come to one or more or all of the six sessions. If you have any questions, contact Steven Howell at sthowell@alumni.stanford.edu

* Lamplighters: Lourdes Alonso and Rosie La Puma Lebel

Monday, June 7, 7:00pm–8:00pm (Pacific) online via Zoom—see weekly email for meeting info

Join us for an exciting conversation with our ‘soon-to-depart’ Lourdes Alonso, Campus Minister for CC@S, and Rosie La Puma Lebel, Stanford Law Student. Lourdes is passionate about connecting with students and accompanying them as they engage with their faith. She is also immersed in Catholic Relief Services helping to launch our CRS chapter which includes members of our entire community to mobilize us around issues in support of those in need around the world.
Psalm (Ps. 33)

(spoken response)

R: Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

The word of the Lord is upright,
and all his work is done in faithfulness.
He loves righteousness and justice;
the earth is full of the steadfast love of the Lord.
(R.)

By the word of the Lord the heavens were made,
and all their host by the breath of his mouth.
For he spoke, and it came to be;
he commanded, and it stood firm.
(R.)

Truly the eye of the Lord is on those who fear him,
on those who hope in his steadfast love,
to deliver their souls from death,
and to keep them alive in famine.
(R.)

Our soul waits for the Lord;
he is our help and shield.
Let your steadfast love, O Lord, be upon us,
even as we hope in you.
(R.)

Second Reading   Romans 8:14–17

All who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.
For you did not receive a spirit of slavery
to fall back into fear,
but you have received a spirit of adoption.
When we cry, “Abba! Father!”
it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit
that we are children of God,
and if children, then heirs,
heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ.
In fact, we suffer with him
so that we may also be glorified with him.
Gospel Acclamation “Celtic Alleluia”

Gospel Matthew 28:16–20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted.

And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. “And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
Offertory

If you have found spiritual encouragement from our virtual Sunday Mass, please consider making an offering. CC@S relies on individual donations from supporters all over the country to fund Sunday Mass, spiritual programs for students, faculty, staff and other permanent community members.

Outdoor Mass and Confessions
Also on Campus Now

Because of Stanford restrictions, those attending must be people who have permission to be on campus.

Mass: In addition to our outdoor Sunday Mass at St. Raymond’s, we now have weekly outdoor 10:30am Sunday Mass on campus at Wilbur Field. For contact tracing purposes and because there is a limit to how many are allowed to attend, you need to RSVP (open between 7pm Monday and 8:30am Sunday). See our website https://stanfordcatholic.org/sunday-mass for the RSVP link.

Confessions: In addition to our outdoor Saturday confessions at St. Raymond’s, we now have outdoor confessions on campus on Fridays, 2:30pm–4pm, behind Memorial Church. For contact tracing purposes, you need to RSVP (open between 2:30pm the Friday before and 1:30pm the day of). Go to https://mercy.youcanbook.me to RSVP.

* Infant/Child Baptisms

We are currently scheduling baptisms for infants/children for our registered parishioners. If you are seeking baptism for your child, please contact Teresa Pleins, tpleins@stanford.edu. The baptisms will be held outdoors off-campus in a lovely garden area.

Pre-Cana Preparation

Are you getting married in your home parish or elsewhere and cannot find a required pre-marriage workshop or an Engaged Encounter weekend available? If you are a student, faculty, staff member or registered member of CC@S (including alumni – all must be registered as CC@S members for at least a year) and are in need of pre-marriage prep, contact Father Xavier Lavagetto (xavierop@stanford.edu) about the possibility of doing an online program. For further information about the canonical prep requirements for a Catholic wedding, please visit our website.
St. Anthony’s Padua Dining Room

During this time of pandemic, CC@S continues to help prepare take-away hot meals for those in need at St. Anthony’s Padua Dining Room in Menlo Park (http://paduadining-room.com) every first and fourth Saturday of the month. However, to reduce the risk of virus transmission we are not able to accept new volunteers, currently. Please stay tuned for volunteer opportunities to resume. For further information, please contact gary.glover@stanford.edu (650-302-6902).

Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus, we know that you are always with us. Help us to remember your presence within us as we await the day when we can gather in one place to celebrate the Eucharist and share communion.

May our communion with you and one another move us to reach out to others, especially those who are sick and those who seek justice.

We know that you abide with those whom you created. Never let us forget your love. Amen.

Priest’s Communion “Be Thou My Vision”

Join the Live-Stream Choir!

At the end of our live streamed Masses, singers and instrumentalists from all over the world join together to lead our community in song.

Would you like to “join” the choir?

It’s not difficult and you don’t have to be a recording star to join in. The music is pre-recorded and then mixed together, so your voice is blended with others.

God is calling us in many different ways these days. Perhaps Live-stream choir is a way to help others pray through song about mercy, grace, forgiveness, and hope.
