1) The sun comes up. It’s a new day dawning. It’s time to sing Your song again. Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me, Let me be singing when the evening comes.

2) You’re rich in love and You’re slow to anger. Your name is great and Your heart is kind. For all Your goodness I will keep on singing Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

3) And on that day when my strength is failing, The end draws near and my time has come, Still my soul will sing Your praise unending Ten thousand years and then forever more.

We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Their Stories: You’re the Hero

Hopefully you’ve had a chance to read our email that shares our students’, alumni, and community members’ stories. If you haven’t read the stories yet, you can pick up the link to them on our home page at stanfordcatholic.org

First Reading
Wisdom 1:13–15; 2:23–24

God did not make death, and he does not delight in the death of the living.
For he created all things so that they might exist;
the generative forces of the world are wholesome, and there is no destructive poison in them,
and the dominion of Hades is not on earth.
For righteousness is immortal.

For God created us for incorruption, and made us in the image of his own eternity, but through the devil’s envy death entered the world, and those who belong to his company experience it.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

Glory—Words: from the English translation of The Roman Missal, © 2010, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.
Second Reading 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13–15

Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance.

As it is written, “The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little.”

Psalm (Ps. 30)

(spoken response)
R: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.
I will extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up, and did not let my foes rejoice over me.
O Lord, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit.
(R.)
Sing praises to the Lord, O you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.
For his anger is but for a moment; his favour is for a lifetime. Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.
(R.)
Hear, O Lord, and be gracious to me! O Lord, be my helper! You have turned my mourning into dancing. O Lord my God, I will give thanks to you forever.
(R.)

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side,
a great crowd gathered around him;
and he was by the sea.
Then one of the synagogue leaders named Jairus came
and, when he saw Jesus,
fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly,
“My little daughter is at the point of death.
Come and lay your hands on her,
so that she may be made well, and live.”
So Jesus went with him.
And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him.
Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years.
She had endured much under many physicians,
and had spent all that she had;
and she was no better, but rather grew worse.
She had heard about Jesus,
and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak,
for she said,
“If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.”
Immediately her hemorrhage stopped;
and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.
Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him,
Jesus turned about in the crowd and said,
“Who touched my clothes?”
And his disciples said to him,
“You see the crowd pressing in on you;
how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’”
He looked all around to see who had done it.
But the woman, knowing what had happened to her,
came in fear and trembling, fell down before him,
and told him the whole truth.
Jesus said to her,
“Daughter, your faith has made you well;
go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”
Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Gospel (continued)

While Jesus was still speaking,
some people came from the leader's house to say,
“Your daughter is dead.
Why trouble the teacher any further?”
But overhearing what they said,
Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue,
“Do not fear, only believe.”
Jesus allowed no one to follow him.
When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue,
he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly.
When he had entered, he said to them,
“Why do you make a commotion and weep?
The child is not dead but sleeping.”
And they laughed at him.
Then Jesus put them all outside,
and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him,
and went in where the child was.
He took her by the hand and said to her,
“Talitha cum,” which means, “Little girl, get up!”
And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about for she was twelve years of age.
At this they were overcome with amazement.
Jesus strictly ordered them that no one should know this,
and told them to give her something to eat.

Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus, we know that you are always with us. Help us to remember your presence within us as we await the day when we can gather in one place to celebrate the Eucharist and share communion.

May our communion with you and one another move us to reach out to others, especially those who are sick and those who seek justice.

We know that you abide with those whom you created. Never let us forget your love. Amen.

Recessional (in-person) “I Will Not Die”

1. I will not die before I’ve lived to see that land;
2. I will not rest until your dawn is in my eyes;
3. And I will breathe in that mighty wind of justice;
4. You will stand up for the poor and the needy;

firm as the earth, that fragile light, new like morning,
you’ll break the chains that bind your people.

I’ll not let go until I’ve held it in my hand;
I will not sleep before I’ve wakened to that sunrise;
And I will call until my words bring on the thunder;
For you are home for the lost and the desolate;

that word of hope, and gentle laughter, (to vs. 2)
and all the world knows your glory, washed in that rain, then I’ll know you, (to vs. 4)
your strong right hand goes before us.

For your right hand has delivered us from death;

You have regarded our tears,
you who are goodness and grace.

Recessional (live stream) “Alleluia! Love Is Alive”

Join the Live-Stream Choir!

At the end of our live streamed Masses, singers and instrumentalists from all over the world join together to lead our community in song.

Would you like to “join” the choir?

It’s not difficult and you don’t have to be a recording star to join in. The music is pre-recorded and then mixed together, so your voice is blended with others.

God is calling us in many different ways these days. Perhaps Live-stream choir is a way to help others pray through song about mercy, grace, forgiveness, and hope.
