Gathering  “Be Thou My Vision”

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
Riches I heed not, nor man’s empty praise,
High King of heaven, my victory won,

Nought be all else to me save that thou art.
Thou mine inheritance, now and always,
May I reach heav’n’s joys, O bright heav’n’s Sun!

Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
Thou and thou only, first in my heart,
Heart of my own heart, whatsoever befall,

Waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.
High King of heaven, my treasure thou art.
Still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

Words: ancient Irish, translated by Mary E. Byrne, verse setting by Eleanor Hull. Music: Slane, traditional Irish tune.

We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

First Reading Ezekiel 2:2–5

The heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.
When I saw this, I fell on my face,
and I heard the voice of someone speaking.

When the voice spoke to me,
a spirit entered into me and set me on my feet;
and I heard one speaking to me:
“Mortal, I am sending you to the people of Israel,
to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me;
The descendants are impudent and stubborn.
I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them,
‘Thus says the Lord God.’
Whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house),
they shall know that there has been a prophet among them.”

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 12:7–10

Considering the exceptional character of the revelations, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated.

Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Psalm (Ps. 123)

(speaken response)

R: Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

To you I lift up my eyes—
O you who are enthroned in the heavens—as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master.

(R.)

As the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the Lord our God, until he has mercy upon us.

(R.)

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy, for we have had more than enough of contempt. Our soul has had more than its fill of the scorn of those who are at ease, of the contempt of the proud.

(R.)

Gospel  Mark 6:1–6

Jesus came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him.
On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue,
and many who heard him were astounded.
They said, “Where did this man get all this?
What is this wisdom that has been given to him?
What deeds of power are being done by his hands!
Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon,
and are not his sisters here with us?”
And they took offense at him.

Then Jesus said to them,
“Prophets are not without honour,
except in their hometown,
and among their own kin, and in their own house.”

And Jesus could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them.
And Jesus was amazed at their unbelief.
Then he went about among the villages teaching.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
If you have found spiritual encouragement from our virtual Sunday Mass, please consider making an offering. CC@S relies on individual donations from supporters all over the country to fund Sunday Mass, spiritual programs for students, faculty, staff and other permanent community members.

Join the Live-Stream Choir!

At the end of our live streamed Masses, singers and instrumentalists from all over the world join together to lead our community in song.

Would you like to “join” the choir?

It’s not difficult and you don’t have to be a recording star to join in. The music is pre-recorded and then mixed together, so your voice is blended with others.

God is calling us in many different ways these days. Perhaps Live-stream choir is a way to help others pray through song about mercy, grace, forgiveness, and hope.
