Important notice

COVID-19 Safety

In the event that you show symptoms or test positive for COVID-19 within forty-eight (48) hours of being at Mass in Memorial Church, please report this promptly to Ruby Mo, rubymo@stanford.edu, the COVID manager for Office for Religious and Spiritual Life at Stanford.

We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Mass of the Holy Spirit — October 3, 2021

Gathering “All Creatures of Our God and King”

Gloria from “Mass of St. Ann”

Words: St. Francis of Assisi, 1182-1226, tr. William H. Draper, 1855-1933.
Music: LASST UNS ERFREUEN, Auserlesene Catholische Geistliche Kirchengesänge, Cologne, 1623.
“Gloria” (continued—verses)

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

First Reading  Ezekiel 37:1–14

The prophet visioned a valley of dry bones. The Spirit's breath came upon them and they lived.

Psalm  “Send Us Your Spirit, O Lord” (Ps. 104)

1) Bless the Lord, O my soul. See how great is our God.
For the earth is abundant, filled with your might, filled with your love!

2) When you take back your spirit all is dead;
all returns to dust from where it came.
But, when you send forth your spirit, all is made new! Renew us, O Lord!

Second Reading  1 Corinthians 12:3b–7, 12–13

All the variety of God’s gifts are granted by the same Holy Spirit. We all drink of the one Spirit.

Gospel Acclamation  “Celtic Alleluia”

Mass in Spanish

Our monthly Mass in Spanish begins next Sunday, Oct. 10 at 3:00 p.m. in Memorial Church. All are welcome to worship with Scriptures, prayers, and music in Spanish. Our chaplain is Fr. Stasys Mikalonis. Help us spread the word about this special Mass. Invite others to attend! For more info, contact Teresa (tpleins@stanford.edu).

Be a Light and Become a Leader in Our Alpha+ Group

Alpha is an 11-week course that creates a space where people are excited to bring their friends for a conversation about faith, life and God. Our proposal is to form an experimental group, to learn by doing and in the process to design an Alpha curriculum that fits our situation and trains leaders to conduct the program in the future. Contact Fr. Xavier if you are interested in being part of this project.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.

Amen.

Gospel

John 15:26–27, 16:12–15

The Spirit of Truth will guide you into all truth.

Conclusion of the Prayer of the Faithful “Adsumus Sancte Spiritus”

(said by all):

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Offertory (9AM & 9PM) “Open My Eyes”

Recapturing an ancient Church Governance: Synodality—Listening to the Voice of God in the People
Tuesday, Oct 12 at 7:30pm
Throughout his pontificate, Pope Francis has repeatedly called for a synodal church, one where bishops, priests and people “walk together” in a common mission. In a landmark 2015 speech, Pope Francis stressed that synodality is what “God expects of the Church in the third millennium”. See our website for links to readings.

“Canticle of the Turning” (continued)

Refrain
My heart shall sing of the day you bring. Let the fires of your justice burn. Wipe away all tears, for the dawn draws near, and the world is about to turn!

Hospitality and Service Team
CC@S would like to gather a group of about 30-40 members who will be CC@S Hospitality Volunteers, assisting with events throughout this upcoming academic year (one year term, August-July). Please contact Alicia Restrepo (restrepo@stanford.edu), chair of our Intra Community Council (which helps with these events), if you are interested in volunteering.

St. Anthony’s Padua Dining Room

During this time of pandemic, CC@S continues to help prepare take-away hot meals for those in need at St. Anthony’s Padua Dining Room in Menlo Park (http://paduadining-room.com) every first and fourth Saturday of the month. However, to reduce the risk of virus transmission we are not able to accept new volunteers, currently. Please stay tuned for volunteer opportunities to resume. For further information, please contact gary.glover@stanford.edu (650-302-6902).

Recessional “Holy God, We Praise Thy Name”

1. Holy God, we praise thy Name; Lord of all, we bow before thee; All on earth, thy scepter claim. All in heav’n, above adore thee;
2. Holy Father, Holy Son, Holy Spirit, Three we name thee; While in essence only One, Undivided God we claim thee;
1. Infinite, thy vast dominion, Ever lasting is thy reign. Infinite, thy own the mystery. And adoring,
2. And adoring, bend the knee, While we last ing is thy reign. In finite, thy own the mystery. And adoring,
1. vast dominion, Ever lasting is thy reign.
2. bend the knee, While we own the mystery.
