28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME — OCTOBER 10, 2021

Gathering “Be Thou My Vision”

Words: ancient Irish, translated by Mary E. Byrne, verse setting by Eleanor Hull. Music: Slane, traditional Irish tune.

Gloria from “Mass of St. Ann”

Words: ancient Irish, translated by Mary E. Byrne, verse setting by Eleanor Hull. Music: Slane, traditional Irish tune.
First Reading  Wisdom 7:7–11

I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. I preferred her and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her.

Psalm  “Fill Us With Your Love, O Lord” (Ps. 90)

1) Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart. Return, O Lord! How Long? Have pity on your servants!

2) Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days. Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us, for the years when we saw evil.

3) Let your work be seen by your servants and your glory by their children; and may the gracious care of the Lord our God be ours; prosper the work of our hands for us! Prosper the work of our hands!

Second Reading  Hebrews 4:12–13

The word of God is sharper than any two-edged sword, discerning reflections and thoughts of the heart.

Gospel Acclamation  “Celtic Alleluia”

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

St. Kateri Dinner for Catholic Grad
Students: Navajo Fry Bread, Corn Salad, Roasted Sweet Potatoes
Special Guest Speaker: Fr. John Auther, S.J. of Jesuit Retreat Center, Los Altos
Topic: Godliness: Mindfulness for Catholics
Our Catholic Tradition offers us very effective tools and practices to pray continuously throughout the day. In using them we become aware of how our lives are filled with God and we become mindful both of the gift of our lives and of God who gives us this gift.

There is a wealth of experiences and stories in our own CC@S community -- stories that inspire and stories that enlighten. Join us for “A Woman on a Mission!,” a conversation between CC@S community member Tricia Bølle and former CC@S associate pastor Fr. Isaiah Molano, OP.

Tricia has been a Catholic missionary for over 13 years in Asia, and is the founder of the St. Francis Xavier Lay Missionary Society.

This 20-30 minute short talk will be followed by an opportunity to ask Tricia and Fr. Isaiah questions, all in under an hour.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.

Amen.

Gospel

Mark 10:17–30

Jesus told a young man, “Go, sell what you have, give to the poor, and follow me.”

Conclusion of the Prayer of the Faithful “Adsumus Sancte Spiritus”

(said by all):

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Offertory “Song To Jesus Christ”

Music: Huub Ooserhuis

1. You have passed by, you came like fire that lights the skies.
2. You have passed by, as brief as footprints on the sea;
3. You have passed by, a strange and yet familiar face,

   Sparks falling from your name glow in our hearts like eyes.
   Why did you go so far? You went too far for me.
   A fragment of our being, a flickering light, a trace.

   In tatters hangs your word, draped round our world and torn;
   You are forever now as deep in God as breath;
   Your light is ever now in my blood, my body is your day;

   Now we shall live in your, like clothing you are worn.
   No stillness captures you, unthinkably your death.
   I hope my whole life long to meet you on the way.

Pope Francis is beginning a two-year process of Listening for God’s voice in the People of God. It begins locally, will be synthesized regionally, and brought to the 2023 Roman Synod.
