We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Their Stories: You’re the Hero

Hopefully you’ve had a chance to read our email that shares our students’, alumni, and community members’ stories. If you haven’t read the stories yet, you can pick up the link to them on our home page at stanfordcatholic.org

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time — October 17, 2021

First Reading  Isaiah 53:10–11

The servant of the Lord must bear suffering and infirmity for the benefit of others. Because of the servant’s affliction, many will be justified before God.
Psalm  "Let Your Mercy Be on Us" (Ps. 33)

Let your mercy be on us, O God, as we place our trust in you.

1) Your words, O God, are truth indeed, and all your works are ever faithful; You love justice and right, your compassion fills all creation.
2) See how the eye of God is watching, ever guarding all who wait in hope to deliver them from death and sustain them in time of famine.
3) Our soul is waiting for God, for God is our help and our shield; May your kindness and love be on us who place our hope in you.

Second Reading  Hebrews 4:14–16

"We have a great high priest" in Jesus. This Son of God has passed through the heavens. Therefore, "let us approach God's throne with confidence to receive mercy and favor."

Gospel Acclamation  “Celtic Alleluia”

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia!

Gospel  Mark 10:35–45

Those who follow Jesus must be the servants of all, for Jesus came not to be served but to serve. He came “to give his life in ransom for the many.”

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
[bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

First announced October 10

* Reading Group

Our next meeting, via Zoom, will be on Wednesday October 27th at 7:30pm to discuss Alice McDermott's beautiful and moving novel Someone. Notice that this time we meet on Wednesday, not Monday. The Zoom link will be sent out closer to the date. Anyone interested not on our contact list can get in touch with Albert Gelpi (agelpi@stanford.edu).

* Lamplighters: Tricia Bølle with Fr. Isaiah Molano, OP

Monday, October 18, 2021
7:00pm (Pacific time)—online via Zoom

There is a wealth of experiences and stories in our own CC@S community -- stories that inspire and stories that enlighten. Join us for “A Woman on a Mission!,” a conversation between CC@S community member Tricia Bølle and former CC@S associate pastor Fr. Isaiah Molano, OP.

Tricia has been a Catholic missionary for over 13 years in Asia, and is the founder of the St. Francis Xavier Lay Missionary Society.

This 20-30 minute short talk will be followed by an opportunity to ask Tricia and Fr. Isaiah questions, all in under an hour.

Communion  “Bread for the World”

Refrain: All

Bread for the world: a world of hunger. Wine for all peoples: people who thirst. May we who eat be bread for others. May we who drink pour out our love.

Verses: Cantor

1. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life, broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain. Where we die.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace, poured into hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps. Where we are rich and pow’rful have become the least. Where we sur-
3. Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast, at which the bread of life and the cup of salvation are given to refresh and sustain us. Where we are gathered in hope and love, we are fed by the life of Jesus.

1. vide your people you are waiting there
2. tired and weary, you are waiting there
3. vive on others in our human greed, to Refrain

1. on bended knee to wash our feet with endless care.
2. to be the way which beckons us beyond despair.
3. you walk among us begging for your every need.

Important notice

* COVID-19 Safety

In the event that you show symptoms or test positive for COVID-19 within forty-eight (48) hours of being at Mass in Memorial Church, please report this promptly to Ruby Mo, rubymo@stanford.edu, the COVID manager for Office for Religious and Spiritual Life at Stanford.

First announced October 10

* One-Time Change to Sunday Mass Schedule

On October 24 (only), the 4:30pm Mass will move to 5:30pm.
First announced October 3

* Be a Light and Become a Leader in Our Alpha+ Group

Alpha is an 11-week course that creates a space where people are excited to bring their friends for a conversation about faith, life and God. Our proposal is to form an experimental group, to learn by doing and in the process to design an Alpha curriculum that fits our situation and trains leaders to conduct the program in the future. Contact Fr. Xavier if you are interested in being part of this project.

Communion

“10,000 Reasons/Bless the Lord”

1) The sun comes up. It’s a new day dawning. It’s time to sing Your song again. Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me, Let me be singing when the evening comes.

2) You’re rich in love and You’re slow to anger. Your name is great and Your heart is kind. For all Your goodness I will keep on singing Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

3) And on that day when my strength is failing, The end draws near and my time has come, Still my soul will sing Your praise unending Ten thousand years and then forever more.

Prayer of Invitation

(said by congregation)

Left side:

God of invitation, you have invited us to your table of life and love. Open our eyes to see those seeking a community of faith And those longing for welcome and acceptance. May we extend your invitation generously.

All: You send us together to gather new friends.

Right side:

Give us the enthusiasm and courage this week To invite others to Mass, To our small groups, To our many opportunities to encounter Christ. May we invite with the unconditional welcome you have shown us.

All: You send us together to gather new friends. Amen.

Recessional (9AM & 4:30) “Halleluya! We Sing Your Praises!”

1. Christ the Lord to us said: I am wine, I am bread, give to all who thirst and hunger.
2. Now he sends us all out, strong in faith, free of doubt, to proclaim the joyful Gospel.

Recessional (9PM) “Alleluia! Sing to Jesus”

1. Alleluia! Sing to Jesus! His the scepter, his the throne; Alleluia! His the triumph, His the victory.
2. Alleluia! King eternal, Thee the Lord of lords we own. Alleluia! Born of Mary, Earth thy foot-stool, high; Alleluia to the Savior Who has won the throny alone; Hark! The Songs of peace Zion.
3. Alleluia! Glory be to God on high; Alleluia to the Spirit, Thy throne: Thou within the veil hast entered, vic-tory; Alleluia to the Tri-umphal flood; Jesus out of the High Priest; Thou on earth both nation Hath redeemed us by his blood.
4. Priest and victim In the Eucharistic feast. Altogether, all our hearts are filled with gladness.

Liturgical Ministries Open To All

How good it is to be gathered again in Memorial Church! We encourage you to contribute to our prayer as a liturgical ministry volunteer. God is surely calling us to minister to each other. To offer some time to your church community, please contact Teresa (tpleins@stanford.edu).

Liturgical ministry opportunities:
- Lector
- Altar Server
- Greeter
- Communion Minister
- Musician (singer or instrumentalist—all instruments welcome)
- Piano Accompanist

Hospitality and Service Team

CC@S would like to gather a group of about 30-40 members who will be CC@S Hospitality Volunteers, assisting with events throughout this upcoming academic year (one year term, August-July). Please contact Alicia Restrepo (restrepo@stanford.edu), chair of our Intra Community Council (which helps with these events), if you are interested in volunteering.
