A Message from Fr. Xavier

Dear Catholic Community at Stanford,

As you know, Stanford University has been more careful than Santa Clara county when it comes to COVID. Once again, Memorial Church is closed for in-person religious services. We will be offering the opportunity to receive communion outside, as well as the opportunity for confessions. For those living off-campus, communion can be brought to your home.

It is important in these still stressful times to connect with a small group. Student small groups will meet online or in other ways that meet university guidelines. Former and ongoing permanent community small groups are encouraged to connect.

As always, don’t hesitate to reach out to anyone on our staff for pastoral counseling. And let’s all find other ways to connect with each other as we journey together.

UPDATE: an in-person Sunday Mass (outdoors) has been added for the rest of January.

See next page for our community’s revised schedule.

Look for grace in every moment!

Gloria (continued—verses)

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

Masses and Sacraments January 2022

Confessions and Adoration

- Confessions Fridays, 1pm–3pm in Old Union (3rd floor, room 304) or in courtyard outside Old Union

No adoration during January 2022 or until further notice.

First Reading Nehemiah 8:1–4, 5–6, 8–10

Ezra the priest stood before the people and proclaimed the Word of the Lord. Then he interpreted it so that all could understand. He declared the day holy and urged the people to rejoice.

Psalm “Lord, You Have the Words of Everlasting Life” (Ps. 19)

1) The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul.
   The decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.

2) The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart.
   The command of the LORD is clear, enlightening the eye.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 12:12–30

The body is one and has many members, but all members, though many, are one body. Further, each part is indispensable. So it is with Christ’s body; we, though many, are one.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Gospel

Luke 1:1–4; 4:14–21

Returning to Nazareth Jesus entered the synagogue and read from the prophet Isaiah. After reading, Jesus proclaimed, “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.”

Offertory

“I Bind My Heart”
First announced January 16

* Reading Group

Our next meeting, via Zoom, will be on Monday, March 7th to talk about Louise Erdrich’s The Night Watchman, which won the Pulitzer Prize for fiction in 2020. Erdrich is our most distinguished Native American fiction writer. A Zoom link will be sent closer to the date to those on the emailing list. Anyone interested who is not on the contact list can get in touch with Albert Gelpi (agelpi@stanford.edu).

We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Financial Transparency:
If you suspect financial mis-management or misconduct in your parish or in the Diocese of San José, please contact: EthicsPoint: dsj.ethicspoint.com or hotline telephone number 1-888-325-7863. Teresa Conville, 408-983-0241 or email:tconville@dsj.org.

Reporting sexual misconduct:
Contact the Diocese of San Jose Office for the Protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults (OPCVA), by phone at 408-983-0113, or online at https://opcva.ethicspoint.com. All reports are confidential. See https://www.dsj.org/ministries/protecting-gods-children/ for more information
