We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Gloria from “Mass of St. Ann”

Glo-ry to God in the high-est,
Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will.

Gathering “Sing of the Lord’s Goodness”

Come, then, all you na-tions, sing of your Lord’s good-ness, mel-o-dies of praise and thanks to God. Ring out the Lord’s glo-ry, praise him with your mu-sic, wor-ship him and bless his name.

Gloria (continued—verses)

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

First Reading 1 Samuel 26:2, 7–9, 12–13, 22–25

David said, “Though the Lord delivered you into my grasp, I would not harm the Lord’s anointed.”

Psalm “Our Help Is the Name of the Lord” (Ps. 103)

1) Our help is the name of the Lord, who made the earth and the heavens. Who is for us the fount of all mercy, faithful and true till the end of time.

2) You call my life away from the grave, you fill my days with happiness; and like an eagle, my youth is restored.

3) This God of ours does not condemn, never repays evil for evil. Greater than our sin are you.

4) Just as a mother, kind and compassionate, you are for us in mercy and love. How well you know us, you make us live.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 15:45–50

Just as we have born the image of the earthly one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel

Love your enemies and do good to them. Be merciful, just as God is merciful.

* CRS Rice Bowls and Special Book Giveaway

Sunday, February 27
This Lent, we are especially cognizant of how lucky we are to be back together as a community on campus, celebrating Mass in person and getting to walk our spiritual journey of faith with one another. This year we are particularly focused on the power and beauty of journeying through shared prayer, attentive listening, and almsgiving (making the needs of other people our own).

To commemorate this special time and to help you particularly with the prayer and almsgiving, we will be offering each CC@S household or student a Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Rice Bowl as well as a special book, Rediscover Jesus by Matthew Kelly, that walks you through the 40 days of Lent. You can receive a Rice Bowl and book either Sunday, February 27th or Ash Wednesday.

New announcement

* Lent/Holy Week Musicians

For the past 2 years we have not been able to have a choir or many instruments at Mass, relying on a faithful group of cantors. This year, for Lent and Holy Week, we plan on rebuilding our music ministry:
- Singers
- String or Wind Instruments
- Percussion Players
- Guitarists of all Kinds (jazz, folk, classical)
- Pianists

Rehearsals for singers are typically on Wednesday evenings.
Come meet new friends and make music for our liturgies!
For info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu
