The Commemoration of the Lord’s Passion

Good Friday — April 15, 2022

Please remain seated for the entrance procession. The service begins in silence.

First Reading:
Isaiah 52:13—53:12
The servant is exalted, though he appears to be of no account, and suffers greatly. His life is an offering for sin; he bears the transgressions of many.

Psalm:
“Into Your Hands” (Ps. 31)
C. Waddell

Second Reading:
Hebrews 4:14–16, 5:7–9
Jesus is the great high priest, servant, source of salvation. Though he was God’s son, he learned obedience through suffering. He was heard because of his reverence.

Gospel (Passion):
John 18:1—19:42
The betrayal of Jesus; his trial by Jewish and Roman authorities; Pilate’s condemnation of Jesus; Jesus’ crucifixion and death.

Prayers of the Faithful:
from “Misa del Pueblo Inmigrante”
B. Hurd

Veneration of the Cross:

Processional chant

Priest: Behold the wood of the cross.
People: Thanks be to God.

“Stay With Me”
J. Berthier

“What Wondrous Love Is This?”
traditional
“O Rubor Sanguinis”
Hildegard of Bingen

(sung by choir)
O rubor sanguinis,
qui de excelsa illo fluxisti
quod divinitas tetigit: tu flos es quem hyems de flatu serpentis numquam lesit.

[O redness of blood
that flowed down from on high,
that divinity has touched: you are a flower,
which the serpent’s icy breath
has never hurt.]

“Lamb of God” from “Missa Oecumenica”
R. Proulx

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Final
world, grant us peace.

“Jesus, Remember Me”
J. Berthier

Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.

Communion:

“O Sacred Head, Surrounded”
O. Alstott/H. L. Hassler

1. O Sacred Head surrounded by crown of piercing thorn!
2. O Love, all loves transcending, O Wisdom from on high!
3. O Jesus we adore thee, upon the cross our King!

bleeding head so wounded, reviled and put to scorn!
No Truth unchanging, unchanging, surrender up to die!
Was humbly bow before thee and of thy vict’ry sing!
Thy

come-liness or beauty thy wounded face betrays.
Yet e’er a love so wondrous! That from his heav’nly throne
God cross is our salvation, our hope from day to day,
Our

an-gel hosts adore thee, and tremble as they gaze.
Should descend among us to suffer for his own peace and conso-la-tion when life shall fade away.

“Lamentations of Jeremiah”
Z. Randall Stroope

(sung by choir)
O vos omnes qui transitis per viam, attendite et videte
si est dolor sicut dolor meus.
Recordare Domine intueri et respicere opprobrium nostrum.

[O you people who pass this way,
look and see if there exists any sorrow (agony) like unto my sorrow.
Remember, Lord, consider and notice
our humiliation and disgrace.]

Recessional:

The assembly departs in silence.
