Gathering

“Jesus Christ Is Risen Today”

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

Gloria

from “Mass of St. Ann”

We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Their Stories: You’re the Hero

Hopefully you’ve had a chance to read our annual impact report that shares our students’, alumni, and community members’ stories. If you haven’t read the stories yet, find them on our website: stanfordcatholic.org/annual-report-2021

First Reading
Acts 5:12–16

Through the work of the apostles, many signs and wonders took place among the people. People in great numbers became believers, and many sick people were cured.

Psalm
“Aleluya” (Ps. 118)

1) Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endures for ever;
   Let the house of Israel say: “His mercy endures for ever.”
2) The right hand of the Lord has struck with power;
   the right hand of the Lord is exalted,
   I shall not die but live, and declare the works of the Lord.
3) The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
   By the Lord has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes.

Music: Mary Frances Reza

Second Reading
Revelation 1:9–11a, 12–13, 17–19

The author of Revelation had a vision of seven gold lampstands. Among the lampstands was one like a son of man.

Gospel Acclamation  “Easter Alleluia”

Words and Arrangement: Marty Haugen. © 1986, GIA Publications, Inc.

Gospel
John 20:19–31

One of the Twelve, Thomas, was absent when the risen Lord first appeared to the others. Later, when Thomas was with them, Jesus came and said, “Bring your hand and put it into my side and believe.” Thomas cried, “My Lord and my God!”

Receiving Communion

Those who wish to receive communion on the tongue should meet the priest by the angel ambo at the end of communion so that he can easily sanitize his hands when needed. When receiving please present an open and steady hand or tongue.

Receiving Communion in the hand was the practice of Jesus and the early Church. We have one mention of communion on the tongue in the 6th century, but the common practice remained in the hand well into the 9th century. Obviating the need for washing their hands as well as out of a sense of greater respect, communion on the tongue became more common until it became the norm in the 16th century. Our Bishop, wishing to honor people's devotion, has removed his Vatican-sanctioned prohibition of receiving on the tongue.
