We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

“Our God Is Here”—Words (English) and Music: Chris Muglia. Spanish tr. by Iván Díaz and Juan J. Sosa, Pbro. © 2001, Chris Muglia. Published by Spirit & Song®, a division of OCP. All rights reserved.

“Aleluya”—Music: Mary Frances Reza
First Reading  Acts 14:21–27

Paul and Barnabas proclaimed the good news in Derbe, Lystra, Antioch, Pisidia, Pamphylia, and Attalia. They made numerous disciples and encouraged them to persevere in the faith.

Psalm  “Aleluya” (Ps. 118)

1) Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endures for ever; Let the house of Israel say: “His mercy endures for ever.”

2) The right hand of the Lord has struck with power; the right hand of the Lord is exalted, I shall not die but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

3) The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the Lord has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes.

Gloria  from “Mass of St. Ann”

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

Lamplighters: Tiffany Steinwert

Monday, May 23, 7:00pm–8:00pm (Pacific) online via Zoom

Join us for an engaging conversation with Tiffany Steinwert, Dean of the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Stanford.

Tiffany has a wealth of experience in higher education and offers insights into the changing landscape of spiritual life at a university.

Was she surprised by the ‘Stanford student’? Has her vision changed as she moves into her fourth year as our Dean? How did the pandemic change her perspective on spiritual life of students? What and who were her most impactful influencers in this chosen career? How can students enrich their religious and spiritual experiences while navigating this ‘secular’ university?

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

[bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Receiving Communion

Those who wish to receive communion on the tongue should meet the priest by the angel ambo at the end of communion so that he can easily sanitize his hands when needed. When receiving please present an open and steady hand or tongue.

Receiving Communion in the hand was the practice of Jesus and the early Church. We have one mention of communion on the tongue in the 6th century, but the common practice remained in the hand well into the 9th century. Obviating the need for washing their hands as well as out of a sense of greater respect, communion on the tongue became more common until it became the norm in the 16th century. Our Bishop, wishing to honor people’s devotion, has removed his Vatican-sanctioned prohibition of receiving on the tongue.
