Their Stories: You’re the Hero

Hopefully you’ve had a chance to read our annual impact report that shares our students’, alumni, and community members’ stories. If you haven’t read the stories yet, find them on our website: stanfordcatholic.org/annual-report-2021

We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Ways to Give

AT MASS: Offering boxes are at the doors as you leave Mass

BY MAIL: Send your donation to:
Catholic Community at Stanford

GIVE ONLINE:
through our secure, online form via PayPal (see stanfordcatholic.org/give/ways-to-give) or through Venmo (@stanford-catholic)

If you need any help with your donation, please contact M’Lis Berry at meberry@stanford.edu

SOLEMNITY OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST — JUNE 19, 2022

Gathering  “Come My Way, My Truth, My Life”

Gloria  from “Mass of St. Ann”

First Reading  Genesis 14:18–20

Melchizedek, king of Salem and priest of God Most High, brought bread and wine, blessing Abram and the creator of heaven and earth, who delivered Abram’s enemies into his hands.

Psalm  “I Will Walk in the Presence of God” (Ps. 116)

1) In my hour of despair, bereft and betrayed, I prayed, “Yahweh, be my breath!” The death of a servant cuts close to your heart. For God of the living you are.
2) Your servant am I like my mother before me. You restore me, loosing my bonds. My hands in thanksgiving to Yahweh I raise. O join me in glorious praise.
3) My vows I will make, and may everyone hear me! Draw near me, O servants of God. I stand here in the midst of them: Your house, your heart, Jerusalem.

Second Reading  1 Corinthians 11:23–26

Paul handed on the tradition that the Lord Jesus broke bread with his disciples the night before he died and drank the cup of the new covenant in his blood. Paul wrote, “As often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.”

Gospel Acclamation  “Celtic Alleluia”

Words and Music: © 1985, 1996, Fintan O’Carroll and Christopher Walker. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.

After teaching about God’s reign and healing those in need, Jesus took five loaves and two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and blessed and broke them for his disciples to distribute to the crowd. Afterwards, leftovers filled twelve baskets.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

[bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;

he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Sanctus  from “Mass of Creation”

Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of your glory, Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest.

* Synod Action Teams Invitation

Our CC@S Synodal Journey
In October 2021 Pope Francis called the global Church into a Synodal journey. For the past six months, we have engaged in listening and discerning the Spirit’s call to greater fidelity to Jesus and to our mission as the Catholic Community at Stanford.

Thank You!
We are grateful to all who walked with us in prayer, reflection, surveys, listening sessions and focus groups.

Summer Action Teams
It is time for us to move from insights into action! We are forming 6 Action Teams composed of students, year-round community members, and University faculty and staff:

• Liturgy, Sacraments & Prayer
• Outreach in Service & Justice Advocacy
• Community & Social Life
• Spiritual Accompaniment & Small Groups
• Education on Core Faith Concepts
• Communication

These Action Teams will meet in person and/or on Zoom this summer to design and begin both short-term and long-term actions.

Join!
If you are interested in joining an Action Team, see our website for a link to a sign-up form. Please sign up by June 25.

Receiving Communion

Those who wish to receive communion on the tongue should meet the priest by the angel ambo at the end of communion so that he can easily sanitize his hands when needed. When receiving please present an open and steady hand or tongue.

Receiving Communion in the hand was the practice of Jesus and the early Church. We have one mention of communion on the tongue in the 6th century, but the common practice remained in the hand well into the 9th century. Obviating the need for washing their hands as well as out of a sense of greater respect, communion on the tongue became more common until it became the norm in the 16th century. Our Bishop, wishing to honor people’s devotion, has removed his Vatican-sanctioned prohibition of receiving on the tongue.

Communion “Ave Verum Corpus”

Ave, ave verum Corpus
Natum de Maria Virgine: Hail, true Body,
Vere passum, immolatum Truly born of the Virgin Mary mild
In cruce pro homine: Truly offered, wrecked and torn,
Cuius latus perforatum On the cross for all defiled:
Unda fluxit et sanguine: From Whose love pierced, sacred side
Esto nobis praegustatum Flowed Thy true Blood’s saving tide:
In mortis examine. Be a foretaste sweet to me
