We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time — July 31, 2022

Gathering

“Be Thou My Vision”

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
Riches I heed not, nor man’s empty praise,
High King of heaven, my victory won,

Nought be all else to me save that thou art.
Thou mine inheritance, now and always,
May I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's Sun!

Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
Thou and thou only, first in my heart,
Heart of my own heart, what ever befall,

Waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.
High King of heaven, my treasure thou art.
Still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

Gloria

from “Mass of St. Ann”

Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.
First Reading  Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21–23

All things are vanity! Some people have labored skillfully a whole lifetime, but the fruits of their labor go to others who did nothing. What good comes from hard work? Everything is vanity.

Psalm  “If Today” (Ps. 95)

Since you now belong to Christ, set your heart on things above rather than on things of earth. For in Christ there is no Greek or Jew, no slave or free person. Christ is everything in you.

First announced July 17
* Reading Group

Our next meeting, via Zoom, will be on Monday, August 22nd at 7:30pm to discuss Graham Greene’s 1956 novel The Quiet American. A Zoom link will be sent closer to the date to those on the emailing list. Anyone interested who is not on the contact list can get in touch with Albert Gelpi (agelpi@stanford.edu).

New announcement
* Volunteer at Palo Alto’s Opportunity Center

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to help our brothers and sisters. Volunteer to cook and serve breakfast Monday, August 8 at Palo Alto’s Opportunity Center, where brothers and sisters who are less fortunate go to receive a warm meal.
Cook breakfast 7:00 a.m. to 8:15 a.m.
Serve breakfast 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.

Amen.

Gospel Acclamation from “Mass from Age to Age”

Jesus told a parable about the rich man who stored up all his wealth in order to eat, drink, and be merry. God told him, “You fool! Tonight your life shall be required of you.” In this way Jesus encouraged people to grow rich not for themselves but in God’s sight.

Offertory instrumental

If you have found spiritual encouragement from our Sunday Mass, please consider making an offering. CC@S relies on individual donations from supporters all over the country to fund Sunday Mass, spiritual programs for students, faculty, staff and other permanent community members.

• To make a tax-deductible donation through PayPal, Check, or stock transfers, see stanfordcatholic.org/give/ways-to-give
Memorial Acclamation  from “Mass from Age to Age”

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Great Amen  from “Mass from Age to Age”

Amen, amen, amen.

Agnus Dei  from “Mass from Age to Age”

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us, Lamb of God. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us, Lamb of God.

Family Giving Tree Backpack Drive and Service Opportunity

CC@S is participating this summer in the 2022 Back to School Backpack Drive, organized by the Family Giving Tree to assist low income students in the greater Bay Area. There are two ways you can help:

1) Go to our virtual tree here: https://vtree.fgt.org/CatholicCommunityatStanford and make a secure donation online.

2) Volunteer at the Family Giving Tree warehouse on Sat, Aug 6, from 10am–12pm or from 12:30pm–2:30pm. Specify which shift you would like. A limited number of spots are available. The warehouse location is in nearby Sunnyvale (1611 Orleans Drive).

For more info or to sign up, contact Larry (lhu_ccas@yahoo.com).

Summer Small Group Opportunities

For undergrads

Mondays, 6-7pm, Old Union Courtyard
Want to meet up with peers to discover Jesus’ invitation for your life through the Sunday gospels? Maybe he invites you to this group.

Wednesdays, 7-8pm, Whisper Circle
Have you ever been asked a question about your faith and not known how to reply? This group is for you.
Receiving Communion

Those who wish to receive communion on the tongue should meet the priest by the angel ambo at the end of communion so he can easily sanitize his hands when needed. When receiving please present an open and steady hand or tongue.

Receiving Communion in the hand was the practice of Jesus and the early Church. We have one mention of communion on the tongue in the 6th century, but the common practice remained in the hand well into the 9th century. Obviating the need for washing their hands as well as out of a sense of greater respect, communion on the tongue became more common until it became the norm in the 16th century. Our Bishop, wishing to honor people's devotion, has removed his Vatican-sanctioned prohibition of receiving on the tongue.

Get Involved in Liturgical Ministries This Summer!

Serving as a Lector, Altar Server, Greeter, Eucharistic Minister or Singer is a profound and fun way to share your faith with others in the community.

Instrumentalists would add great beauty to our liturgies. Strings, winds, percussion, saxophone—pretty much any instrument is welcome! Music available in advance. Rehearsal 1 hour before Mass.

Contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu for more info.

Host an Outdoor Recreation Event!

We invite you to set the date and time for some outdoor sports, hikes, fun in the sun! Send information to Fr. Xavier at xavierop@stanford.edu or M'lis at meberry@stanford.edu to share in our CC@S weekly email.
