We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

1. Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, a place where saints and words are strong and true, where all God’s children dare to seek to dream God’s reign anew. Here the hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of love of God, through Jesus, is revealed in time and grace; here the love of Christ shall end divisions: grace; here as one we claim the faith of Jesus: space, as we share in Christ the feast that frees us.

Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
Gloria (continued—verses)

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,we give you thanks for your great glory,Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

First Reading  Sirach 3:17–18, 20, 28–29

Conduct your affairs more humbly, the greater you are, and God will favor you. A wise person always takes joy in listening to others.

Psalm  “Taste and See” (Ps. 34)

1) I will bless you, Lord, at all times, your praise ever in my mouth;O let my soul glorify you, Lord, and the lowly will hear, and be glad!

2) Glorify the Lord with me, Let us together extol God’s name. I sought the Lord, and the Lord heard my plea, and delivered me from all my fear.

3) Come, children, hear me! Taste and see God's goodness! Look to God and be radiant in God's joy!

Words and Music: Tony Eiras

Second Reading  Hebrews 12:18–19, 22–24

Our God draws near to our mountain and city. The judge of all comes close into our assembly. Jesus our mediator reaches to touch us and invites us to touch him. We join the festal gathering of our living God.

Gospel Acclamation from “Mass from Age to Age”

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Gospel Luke 14:1, 7–14

The exalted shall be humbled and the humble exalted. When you have a dinner, invite poor people or persons with disabilities. Have a reception for persons who cannot repay you. God rewards you in the resurrection of the just.

Offertory (instrumental)
Sanctus from “Mass from Age to Age”

Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation from “Mass from Age to Age”

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Great Amen from “Mass from Age to Age”

Amen, amen, amen.

Children & Teen Religious Education Program

Our community sponsors the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program, a Montessori-based curriculum that centers on Scripture, prayer, and liturgy. Children ages 3 and older are invited to join.

Our junior high group covers religion and faith practices relating to contemporary topics, with a variety of guest speakers. If there is interest, we will also hold a high school group.

Sacrament preparation is included.

The program meets Sunday mornings, 10:15–11:45 on Stanford’s campus.

First meeting is September 18.

Stanford university students are invited to serve as mentors, assistants and speakers.

For registration materials and more info, contact Teresa Pleins (tpleins@stanford.edu).
Receiving Communion

Those who wish to receive communion on the tongue should meet the priest by the angel ambo at the end of communion so that he can easily sanitize his hands when needed. When receiving please present an open and steady hand or tongue.

Receiving Communion in the hand was the practice of Jesus and the early Church. We have one mention of communion on the tongue in the 6th century, but the common practice remained in the hand well into the 9th century. Obviating the need for washing their hands as well as out of a sense of greater respect, communion on the tongue became more common until it became the norm in the 16th century. Our Bishop, wishing to honor people’s devotion, has removed his Vatican-sanctioned prohibition of receiving on the tongue.

Communion “Table of Plenty”

Come to the feast of heaven and earth! Come to the table of plenty, God will provide for all that we need, here at the table of plenty.

1. O come and sit at my table where saints and sinners are friends. I wait to welcome the lost and lonely to share the cup of my love.

2. O come and eat without money; come to drink without price. My feast of gladness will feed your spirits and supply your needs.

3. My bread will ever sustain you through days of sorrow and woe. My wine will flow like a sea of gladness to flood the depths of your soul.

4. Your fields will flow in fullness; your homes will flourish in peace. For I, the giver of home and harvest, will send my rain on the soil.
