We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Their Stories: You’re the Hero

Hopefully you’ve had a chance to read our annual impact report that shares our students’, alumni, and community members’ stories. If you haven’t read the stories yet, find them on our website: stanfordcatholic.org/annual-report-2021

Gloria
from “Mass of St. Ann”

First Reading  Wisdom 9:13–18

No one understands heaven or earth completely, but God sends wisdom and the Holy Spirit to light up the paths of those who search for the way.

Psalm  “Home From Our Exile” (Ps. 126)

1) We shall be singing, laughing and reveling; let all the world say: “Their God does wonders!”
Yes, you do wonders. God here among us, be then our gladness!

2) Then lead us home, bring us to life, just as the rivers, deep in the desert, flow once again as the new rain appears.

New announcement

* Reading Group

Our next meeting, via Zoom, will be on Monday, September 19th at 7:30pm. We will follow up our discussion of Graham Greene’s The Quiet American at our last meeting with a conversation about Greene’s 1951 novel The End of the Affair, which William Faulkner called “one of the best, most true and moving novels of my time.” A Zoom link will be sent closer to the date to those on the emailing list. Anyone interested who is not on the contact list can get in touch with Albert Gelpi (agelpi@stanford.edu).

First time to verse Last time

Gospel Luke 14:25–33

Jesus taught his followers the hard lesson of the cross: good accounting, careful planning, anticipating changes, decision making and finishing the job.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

[bowing:]

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Offertory (instrumental)

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Great Amen from “Mass from Age to Age”

Children & Teen Religious Education Program

Our community sponsors the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program, a Montessori-based curriculum that centers on Scripture, prayer, and liturgy. Children ages 3 and older are invited to join.

Our junior high group covers religion and faith practices relating to contemporary topics, with a variety of guest speakers. If there is interest, we will also hold a high school group.

Sacrament preparation is included.

The program meets Sunday mornings, 10:15–11:45 on Stanford’s campus.

First meeting is September 18.

Stanford university students are invited to serve as mentors, assistants and speakers.

For registration materials and more info, contact Teresa Pleins (tleins@stanford.edu).

Mass from Age to Age—Holy, Holy, Holy / Memorial Acclamation / Amen / Lamb of God—Revised Order of Mass:

Receiving Communion

Those who wish to receive communion on the tongue should meet the priest by the angel ambo at the end of communion so that he can easily sanitize his hands when needed. When receiving please present an open and steady hand or tongue.

Receiving Communion in the hand was the practice of Jesus and the early Church. We have one mention of communion on the tongue in the 6th century, but the common practice remained in the hand well into the 9th century. Obviating the need for washing their hands as well as out of a sense of greater respect, communion on the tongue became more common until it became the norm in the 16th century. Our Bishop, wishing to honor people's devotion, has removed his Vatican-sanctioned prohibition of receiving on the tongue.

Host an Outdoor Recreation Event!

We invite you to set the date and time for some outdoor sports, hikes, fun in the sun! Send information to Fr. Xavier at xavierop@stanford.edu or M'Lis at meberry@stanford.edu to share in our CC@S weekly email.

Agnus Dei from “Mass from Age to Age”

1) Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us, Lamb of God.
2) God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us, Lamb of God.
3) Grant us peace, grant us peace, grant us peace.

Communion “One Bread, One Cup”

1) We all come before you now, hungry for your healing touch.
   Here we stand with open hearts, thirsting for your love.
   You are the one who fills our every need.
   So with one voice we lift our hearts in unity.

   One bread, one cup, one body of Christ united in love.

   One bread, one cup, one living sacrifice poured out in your blood.

   Gathered as one family in love, one bread, one cup.

2) As we gather at your table, broken like the bread we share, fill our hearts with your compassion for a world in need of care.
   You are the way. You are the life. You are the truth.
   The source of our salvation, we find new life in you.

3) When we go forth from this place of perfect peace, may your light shine in our lives for all the world to see.
