We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Standing at Sunday Liturgy

Because Memorial Church is without kneelers and has a hard, slanted floor, our diocesan-approved custom to express our unity during the eucharistic prayer is that those who are able stand during the eucharistic prayer. If some choose to kneel or need to sit, let us all be at peace and of one heart during the prayer. Also, Catholics of the San Jose Diocese remain standing before communion during “Lord, I am not worthy...”

Gloria (verses)

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.
First Reading  Wisdom 11:22–12:2

The Lord, who can do all things, spares all things. God’s imperishable spirit is in all things, and the Lord God overlooks “people’s sins that they may repent.”

Psalm (9AM & 4:30) “Abres Tu La Mano, Señor” (Ps. 145)

1) Tú, Señor, eres clemente y compasivo, siempre juzgas lleno de justicia.
   [Lord, you are merciful and compassionate, you always judge filled with justice.]

2) Las miradas de todos en Ti esperan que les des a tiempo su alimento.
   [The eyes of all look hopefully to you, and you give them food in due season.]

3) Tú, Señor, salvas a los que te aman y aniquilas a los abusivos.
   [Lord, you save those that love you and destroy the wicked.]

Second Reading  Thessalonians 1:11–2:2

The name of Christ is to be glorified in you and you in him.

Gospel Acclamation from “Mass from Age to Age”

When Jesus passed through Jericho, Zacchaeus climbed a sycamore tree in order to see him. Jesus went home with Zacchaeus and blessed his house, for the “son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.”

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

[bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Sanctus

Catholic Marriage, Family and Individual Therapy

The Jesuit Institute for Family Life provides marriage counseling, individual and couples, family counseling, and group counseling for married couples. New skills are often needed and old obstacles to growth must be understood and worked through before effective human relations can be realized. For an appointment, phone 650-948-4854 or see www.jiflinet.com.

Receiving Communion

Those who wish to receive communion on the tongue should meet the priest by the angel ambo at the end of communion so that he can easily sanitize his hands when needed. When receiving please present an open and steady hand or tongue.

Receiving Communion in the hand was the practice of Jesus and the early Church. We have one mention of communion on the tongue in the 6th century, but the common practice remained in the hand well into the 9th century. Obviating the need for washing their hands as well as out of a sense of greater respect, communion on the tongue became more common until it became the norm in the 16th century. Our Bishop, wishing to honor people’s devotion, has removed his Vatican-sanctioned prohibition of receiving on the tongue.

Exploring Catholicism / RCIA

Weekly on Tuesdays at 7:00pm

The RCIA (The Rite of the Christian Initiation for Adults) is a weekly class for those:
• Curious about Catholicism,
• Thinking about becoming Catholic,
• Catholics who were not confirmed,
• Anyone who wants an adult perspective on the Catholic Adventure.
• Drop-ins welcomed.

We will be examining scripture, history, theology, morality, spirituality and more. Let’s explore! Requirements: Good questions and a prayerful heart!

Communion

“Come to the Water”

1. O let all who thirst, let them come to the Lord: without price.
2. And let all who seek, let them come to the Lord: without strife.
3. And let all who toil, let them come to the Lord: without rest.
4. And let all the poor, let them come to the Lord: without might.

1. wa- ter.
2. wa- ter.
3. wa- ter.
4. wa- ter.

And let all who have noth-ing, bring the ones who are lad-en,

1. mon-ey, without price. Why should you pay the tax?
2. mon-ey, without strife. Why should you spend your money?
3. la-bor, without rest. How can your soul find Eas- y the load and
4. chil-dren without might.

* Spring Break trip to San Cristobal de Las Casas, Chiapas, Mexico

The CC@S Chiapas 2023 team invites you to participate in the Spring Break Immersion Experience in Chiapas, MX – March 25–31, 2023. This experience is about putting your faith into action.

Our Chiapas experience will include:
• Prayer as a team and with our indigenous sisters and brothers
• Learning about the people of Chiapas and their reality by immersing ourselves in their daily lives
• Engaging in the environmental, health and migrant issues in Chiapas
• Working on a farm and learning about our interdependence with the land
• Enjoying our time together as a team

If this sounds like something you are interested in being a part of, contact Sr. Regena (srross@stanford.edu) for an application.

To learn more, come to one of the Information Sessions offered today (Oct 30) after 9:00am and 4:30pm Masses.
