We Are Stanford’s Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Our Lady of Guadalupe/Third Sunday of Advent — December 11, 2022

Prelude “Las Apariciones Guadalupanas”

Desde el cielo una hermosa mañana, la Guadalupana bajó al Tepeyac.
Suplicante juntaba las manos,
y eran mexicanos su porte y su faz.
Su llegada llenó de alegría,
de paz y armonía todo el Anáhuac.
Junto al monte pasaba Juan Diego,
y acercóse luego al oír cantar.
“Juan Dieguito”, la Virgen le dijo,
este cerro elijo para hacer mi altar”.
Y en la tilma entre rosas pintada,
su imagen amada se dignó dejar.
Desde entonces para el mexicano,
er Guadalupano es algo esencial.

[From the heavens on a beautiful morning,
Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared on the hill of Tepeyac.
Her pleading hands, her face and garb were of Mexican traits.
Her arrival filled the Anáhuac Valley with harmony and light.
Juan Diego was nearby and heard her song.
“Juan Dieguito I select this hill to build my altar” the Virgin said.
Among roses on the tilma she deemed worthy her image to leave.
Since then it is essential a Guadalupano/a for a Mexican to become.]

First Reading  Isaiah 35:1–6, 10

The deserts exult and burst into flower. The hills ring with joyful song. The feeble grow strong; the frightened take courage. The Lord comes.

Psalm  “Magnificat”

1) Porque ha mirado la humillación de su pobre serva, desde hoy dichosa me llamarán, por las maravillas que hizo en mí.
2) Y su misericordia llega a sus fieles de generación en generación. Él hace proezas co su brazo, dispersa a los soberbios de corazón.
3) The Lord's mercy is from age to age to those who fear him. He has shown might with his arm, dispersed the arrogant of mind and heart.

Second Reading  James 5:7–10

“Be patient until the Lord comes,” said the author of the letter of James. “The judge is at the gate. Take the prophets as your models in facing hardship. They spoke in the Lord’s name.”

Gospel Acclamation

John sent his disciples to ask Jesus, "Are you the one who is to come or should we look for someone else?" Jesus answered them affirmatively, pointing to the blind who see, the crippled who walk, the lepers who are cured and the poor who hear from him good news of hope.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, [bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

---

Offertory “La Elegida”

[1) The angel Gabriel appeared and greeted the Virgin Mary.
Blessed are you among women because you are the Chosen one.

2) Because he saw the great humility and the slave simplicity.
They will call me blessed, I have been chosen by God almighty.

Refrain) My soul exults the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my savior.
For he has created miracles within me.]
Standing at Sunday Liturgy

Because Memorial Church is without kneelers and has a hard, slanted floor, our diocesan-approved custom to express our unity during the eucharistic prayer is that those who are able stand during the eucharistic prayer. If some choose to kneel or need to sit, let us all be at peace and of one heart during the prayer. Also, Catholics of the San Jose Diocese remain standing before communion during “Lord, I am not worthy…”
