

KRAVIS CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

Lee Bell

Senior Director of Programming

July 14, 2011

I just had to write on behalf of the Kravis Center and tell you how fortunate we were to present an artist of Peppino D'Agostino's caliber, two seasons in a row. Our audience members were mesmerized by Peppino's technical brilliance and superb musicality. Add to this, Mr. D'Agostino's uncontainable joy of performing for his audience and you are privy to an absolute stunning evening of musicianship! Not many guitarists are as unforgettable as Peppino D'Agostino.

Peppino will be returning to the Kravis Center for our 2011/2012 20th anniversary season with harp and violin player Carlos Reyes and I know that I echo the sentiments of our audience in saying that I, for one, can't wait!

West Palm Beach, Florida

<http://www.kravis.org>

SAN LUIS OBISPO FOLK MUSIC SOCIETY

Elisabeth Demongeot

President

March 12, 2014

To whom it may concern:

As the president of the San Luis Obispo Folk Music Society for the past ten years, I would like to offer a few words about the only musician who has performed for us every year for over twenty years: Peppino D'Agostino.

Jody Ramsland was the person who discovered Peppino when he was a very young man. She booked him to play at Linnaea's Cafe when 'SLOfolks' first started. The audience loved him and so, Jody brought him back the following year...and so it went for ten years and more. When My husband, Ted Shearer and I took over the helm, of course, we had Peppino back and back each year because our audience loves him and he sells out every year. Peppino returning every August has become a tradition. He plays to a very enthusiastic audience who never miss his concerts.

Peppino is a success not only because of his talents but also because of his personality. He is a poet, a charmer and relates in a relaxed and friendly manner to his audience.

San Luis Obispo, CA

<http://www.slofolks.org/>