Let us set the scene.....

Location:
Mt Barney National Park located in the spectacular scenic rim region of southeast Queensland. In the land of the Bundjalung people.

Dates:
Friday 31 May - Sunday 2 June 2019
Please note we must have a minimum of 8 participants for the expedition to go ahead. Maximum: 12 participants

Duration:
2 days, 2 nights

Cost:
$880. Secure your place with a 20% deposit of $176. All outstanding fees must be paid 60 days prior to the event.

What is special about this expedition?:
If you have been looking for a challenging peak with exquisite scenery without leaving the country, you need to visit Mt Barney.
This inspiring ancient landscape will provide you with a variety of wilderness challenges, culminating in climbing Mt Barney's East Peak (1351m), one of National Geographic's Top 10 most impressive mountains in Australia.
With crystal clear water cascading through the gorge, we will find the deepest section at the Lower Portals for a well deserved swim on the final day.
Trip at a Glance:

Day 1 - Friday
Arrive and settle into our accommodation. Dinner by the fire.

Day 2 - Saturday
Walking up Mt Barney's south east ridge to the summit. This is roughly 14.4km of steep, uneven surfaces hiking and should take approximately 9-10 hours return. Relax back at the accommodation with wine, cheese and dinner.

Day 3 - Sunday
Walking through the gorge via Lower Portals (7.4km return) where we will have a celebratory swim.

What is included:
- Two days of hiking led by The Rewilding Project who hold Hiking & Wilderness First Aid Qualifications
- Female only groups
- Accommodation in the Rustic Cabins at Mt Barney Lodge. This is bunk style, 4 people per room.
- Extensive destination specific risk assessment
- All group equipment
- All meals - TRP pride ourselves in our catering ability and try our best to cater for all dietary requirements. Please speak to us prior to the trip regarding your requirements so that we can organise appropriately.
- First aid

What is not included:
- Personal Insurance
- Any vaccinations, medical needs or medical treatment
- Personal Equipment - an in-depth gear list will be provided prior to departure
- Transport to and from Mt Barney National Park
Trekking Capabilities:
It is important for you to have a moderate fitness level for this trip as you will have to carry a day pack for about 8-10 hours. There will be some rock scrambling up steep ascents, exposed ridges and rock hopping.

Grade:
This trip is rated as a Grade 3-4 track

Pack requirements & what to bring:
You will carry all your personal equipment for the trip in a 30 - 45 litre day pack (equipment list will be provided)

Transport details:
Individual transport arrangements

NOTE:
Please do not book any travel or accomodation until the trip has been confirmed by The Rewilding Project. To run this trip the minimum numbers will need to be met.

This event is hosted in collaboration with TrekCoach
Cancellation Policy:

If you cancel your expedition booking prior to the scheduled departure date you maybe eligible for the following refunds based on the price:

- More than 30 days prior to your departure date, a 20% administration fee based on the price of the expedition and any fees that have already been paid in your name will be deducted from your refund.

- Less than 30 days prior to your departure date, 100% of the expedition costs will be payable or forfeited (where already paid). If a waitlisted client takes up your place, a 20% administration fee based on the price of the expedition will be deducted from your refund.

- Transfers from one expedition to another will not be permitted.

- Please ensure you have had confirmation of your booking from TRP of your expedition before paying for flights.

- TRP or third party operator/s reserve the right to vary or cancel any local and overseas expeditions, walk or section of expeditions due to extremes of weather or changes to operational conditions such as road closures, flood danger, fire bans or other conditions beyond the control of TRP or the third party operator engaged to conduct the expedition.

- Every effort will be made to keep to published departure times and connections, but no guarantee can be made and no compensation shall be payable by TRP or the operator for the cancellation or failure to meet those times.

Terms and Conditions:

Please visit our website and read our full Terms and Conditions: