1. ARI, THE LION

The king of the jungle is truly regal, with a massive mane of prairie fire carex. His face is accented with turkish sedum and irish moss on his chin. Creeping fig create a sleek coat for the lion's 4 by 6 foot high body. Sponsored by Greenwood Commissioners of Public Works

1. JIBARI, THE LION CUB

You can tell this two-foot tall baby is just waiting to be king. Three feet long, his body is completely made of creeping fig, with palm fiber ears, nose and tail just like dad. Sponsored by Cox Accounting Solutions, LLC

2. GERTIE & GIDGET, THE GIRAFFES

Palm fiber with carefully stained spots create the image of a real fourteen-foot tall mama giraffe. A miniature of Mama, her life-sized lovable newborn will delight you at six feet tall! Sponsored by Lonza

3. ALI'S BANANA BOY, THE HANGING MONKEY

This three-foot long, hanging monkey is looking dapper with his coat of variegated fig and palm fiber bow tie! Palm fiber is used to cover his hands, feet, tail, and mischievous face. Sponsored by Town & Country Construction of SC, Inc.

3. COCO, THE FUNKY MONKEY

Dressed in variegated fig with club moss hair, she delights onlookers while hanging from her favorite tree. Palm fiber hands, feet, tail, and face and a big bow complete this 2-foot tall charmer's look, in true southern style. Sponsored by David A. Cratts and Associates, Inc.

3. ALI, THE GATOR An amusing mix of hens & chicks with John Creech sedum create the illusion of the scales, ridges and shadows along the alligator's back. This six-foot long variegated fig alligator's smile full of red hypoestes, lets you know he's happy at home near the water. Sponsored by Lakelands Overhead Door & Installation, LLC

3. HORTON, THE ELEPHANT BABY

Who doesn't love a baby elephant? This four-foot charmer made of creeping fig and ears of Spanish moss playfully spouts water from his curvy trunk. With a brilliant blanket made of yellow & white alternanthera and echeveria across his back, he is a real darling carrying a houdah spilling over with donkey tail, pork & beans, a variety of succulents, and portulaca. Sponsored by Inn on the Square

4. DINO DUDE, THE T-REX

At six-feet tall, the T-Rex will awe both children and adults. Covering the king of the dinosaurs are yellow, red and white alternanthera with variegated creeping fig. A mouth full of red hypoestes give him a menacing smile. A mosaic of white and yellow alternanthera, black ajuga, Turkish sedum, elephant food succulent, irish moss, & blue spruce sedum cover his back. He roars proudly in a meadow of club moss, yellow sweet flag grass, & corkscrew rush. Eyes designed by McKenzie Taxidermy. Sponsored by Piedmont Family Dentistry

5. MILAK, THE ELEPHANT MAMA

Standing tall in a field of yellow sweet flag grass, salvia, cleome, corkscrew rush, coleus, portulaca, lantana, and tradescantia, Milak's body is covered with creeping fig and yellow alternanthera. Ears filled with soft Spanish moss highlight her massive twelve-foot height. Her colorful headdress and houdah add a visual punch filled with succulents, coleus, verbena, and alternanthera. Sponsored by Digestive Disease Group, PA & The Greenwood Endoscopy Center, Inc.

6. SWEET CAROLINE, THE BUTTERFLY A riot of bright colors and patterns, the five-foot high butterfly can be seen from near or far. Red alternantheras, lemon ball sedum, palm fiber, pink and white hypoestes, and lichen create intricate patterns on both sides of her six-foot wingspan. Sponsored by Rush Hobby & Garden Center | Rush Heating & Cooling, Inc.

7 & 19. THE PLAYFUL PANDA FAMILY (two locations)

These iconic bears from China are big eaters, spending 12 hours a day consuming bamboo. This year they are dressed up in Spanish moss for the Festival! Sponsored by Teijin Carbon Fibers, Inc.

8 . EMMETT, THE CITADEL BULLDOG

Four feet of determination covered in creeping fig is the best way to describe Emmett from The Military College of South Carolina. His signature citadel hat with spiked collar and palm fiber accented face tells you he's no knob. Sponsored by Davis & Floyd, Inc. | in Memory of Emmett I. Davis, Jr.

9. THE DABBLING DUCKS

Five ducks playing beside the water are covered with leptinella and sedum on their backs & low growing Turkish sedum on their wings. The males have lichen feet and bellies to impress their female companions, while the females' spanish moss give them a lively appeal. Sponsored by Manley Garvin, LLC

9. SUNNY & RAY, THE TURTLES

Two painted turtles are hanging out with the ducks while enjoying a peaceful day by the water. The Turtles' shells are planted with a variety of vibrant succulents. Sponsored by The Wiley Team

10. KING KONG, THE GORILLA

This 6-foot tall ape boldly clutches an airplane atop a cityscape of yellow sweet flag grass, black ajuga, club moss, elephant food succulent, blue spruce sedum, and Turkish sedum. He comes to life with a vibrant coat of red ruby alternanthera and accents of palm fiber. Sponsored by Greenwood Family Dentistry

11. REEVES, THE MERMAID

Locks of chocolate creeping jenny frame a friendly face of lichen. Her body is covered in creeping fig while dwarf sweet flag, and variegated water celery trail down her graceful tail. A top of white & yellow alternanthera with ogon sedum compliment her belt and headpiece made from pink blush aloe and chalk stick succulents. Don't be shocked by her friends floating nearby! Jellyfish are made from succulents, sweet potato vine, meandering Linda coleus, portulaca, wire vine, silver falls dichondra, bromeliads, and oyster plant. Sponsored by Cambridge Dental Associates

11. PINK PRINCESS, THE FROG

Ready to make a splash, this sweet frog spouts water into her pond. Adorned with a crown of pink blush aloe and ogon sedum, she is covered in variegated creeping fig while her webbed feet are comprised of lichen. Sponsored by Remax/Sharon Mulkey

11. STENNOLISSA, THE DOLPHIN

The whimsical bottlenose dolphin seems caught in action, spouting water as it leaps four feet high in the air. Red ruby & yellow alternanthera highlight her dorsal fin while the green creeping fig creates sleek definition for our friendly dolphin. Sponsored by Buck Stove, Pool & Spa

12. JEEP WRANGLER

This custom-built, 4/5th scale jeep is exactly what you need on your topiary safari. An "annual" favorite, the jeep sports an exterior of blue spruce, lemon ball, and Turkish sedums. Creeping fig, clubmoss, palm fiber, and Spanish moss create a cool interior. Creeping fig covers the grill and roof, while the customized lichen license plate finishes it off. Sponsored by Quality Chrysler, Dodge, Nissan, Jeep and Kia of Greenwood

13. SMILE, PHOTO OP

This double-sided, creeping fig photo op boasts face-framing flowers made of coleus, red alternanthera, lemon ball, lichen, ogon sedum, echeveria, hens & chicks, white hypoestes, and various other succulents. The back reminds you to SMILE big in palm fiber. Sponsored by Ascend Performance Materials

14. BARBIE-Q, THE PIG

Barbie-Q is quite the ham, she loves posing with you for photos! Covered in creeping fig, with spots of variegated creeping fig, her piggy ears and nose are dressed up with pink hypoestes and echeveria dusty rose. Sponsored by Enviva Pellets Greenwood, LLC

15. BRINGING LIGHT TO LIFE PAVILION

You'll have it made in the shade when you stop to visit one of the Festival's most dynamic creations - an arching pavilion covered with a variety of spreading annuals and a new copper roof! Hanging baskets add a kaleidoscope of colorful annuals. Designed and constructed by Velux, the structure houses skylights for the real experience of being surrounded by nature. Sponsored by VELUX Greenwood

16. GRRRRR KASASA, THE TIGER

Beware the fourteen-foot-tall, seventeen-foot-long, ferocious tiger sculpted of orange palm fiber. He proudly guards a waterfall of weeping love grass and petunias, this topiary is inspired by one of R. Thornwell Dunlap, Jr.'s favorite sculptures. Surrounding the Tiger is a meadow of purple heart, portulaca, coleus, trailing petunias, various ferns, wire vine, various tradescantias. Sponsored by Countybank

17. FLORA, THE FLAMINGO

This four-foot wading bird is ready to strut its stuff! Pink and red bromeliads with rose and pink hypoestes cover this elegant topiary while its two-foot long stylishly curved body & neck is supported on two legs of Spanish moss. Sponsored by Jerry's Floral Shop & Greenhouses

18. BUBBLES, THE SEAHORSE

The graceful seahorse seems to be floating quietly along, content to gather admiration for a beautiful mix of succulents and yellow alternanthera on its four-foot tall body. Sponsored by Citizens Trust Company

20. LANDER BEARCAT

With massive jaws and mighty paws, the Lander University Bearcat proudly towers over you at eleven feet tall and six feet wide. Creeping variegated fig, with lemon ball sedum, create a velvety fur of chartreuse. Fuzzy kitten ear leaves highlight his face. Lander University designed its stylish blue jersey. Sponsored by Lander University

21. GAMECOCK

He's a fireball ready for action! Twelve feet tall and covered in red alternantheras, with a tail tipped in Spanish moss, this topiary is a true replica of USC's beloved "Fighting Gamecock." Who wouldn't be cocky in a vibrant field of coleus, yellow sweet flag grass, red petunia, purple sweet potato vine, party-time alternanthera, Dracula celosia, pennistum fireworks, and carex frosted curls? Sponsored by McCartha + McClary Orthodontics
