Who Am I in God and who is God in Me

Without intentionally adding the prepositional phrase ‘in God,’ we might forget that spiritual journeys are entwined with the Great I AM. ‘In’ orients selfhood in a larger relationship; we are still ourselves, but we are not isolated individuals. We exist ‘in’ something. p.184 - Diana Butler Bass, Christianity After Religion

Questions for reflection and writing in a journal:

1. Personal Reflection: Who am I in God? Who is God in me?
2. Reflection on your congregation’s spiritual life: Who are we in God? Who is God in us?

Cultivating Holy Attentiveness: Consider your congregation’s life since beginning this missional journey in LCM and reflect on the following questions:

1. How has God been present in your journey?
2. What are you noticing about the potential resident in your life together as you grow in God’s Spirit and live mission together?

QUESTIONS to Guide Your Reflection:

-What did you notice?
-What did you hear?
-What did you admire?
-What astonished you?
-What would you like to see again?
-What was most tender?
-What was most wonderful?
-What did you think was happening?
