WORKING WITH BLUE PANTHER

Blue Panther Productions will support you in the pursuit and attainment of your professional goals. Through the Production Ready Script process, we will provide script editing services in order to identify and clarify your vision for the script and provide detailed edits. We will partner with you to implement these edits so that the script is production-ready in all areas, both aesthetic and practical. In addition, we will connect you to a network of other theatre artists and professionals outside of your home city who offer valuable resources in building your career.

PRODUCTION READY SCRIPT Program Components

- Script Editing-Three 60 minute intensive, private editing sessions over 3-4 months via phone to integrate notes, resolving and defining vision, intention, content, formatting, story, character development, originality, producibility, and precision, resulting in a compelling, professional script reflecting the playwright's aesthetic and ready for production.
- Monthly Group Training Sessions- Monthly one hour group training & networking call with Laura and Blue Panther's international network of playwrights, actors, and producers. Train, learn from each other, share resources, and move faster.
- Email and Text Support-Get fast and correct answers to your questions, or quick feedback and edits to a scene you're developing.
- Featured on Our Website-A select listing with photo and bio and link to your work on the Blue Panther website, alongside other international theatre artists.
- Networking Events—Exclusive invitation to attend Blue Panther Networking Events in London (New Work Happy Hour, Oct 27 2017) and New York (Producer & Playwright Happy Hour, Sept 2018) as a Blue Panther Artist to introduce yourself and your work to professional directors and producers in the cities best-known for producing bold new theatre.
