William Otuck is a singer/songwriter and young activist from Tanzania advocating for young people's Sexual Reproductive Health and Rights. He is passionate about SDGs 3, 5, 17 and particularly Sexual Reproductive Health and Rights related to all sustainable development. William has been involved with a number of local and international organizations working on SRHR for more than five years. He later co-founded the International Youth Alliance for Family Planning (IYAFP) where he still serves as Executive Board Member and he also chairs the Tanzania Adolescent and Youth Reproductive Health Coalition (TAYARH). William Otuck uses his music as a tool to advocate for various global challenges. He is also a Women Deliver young leader for the 2015/2016 cohort.
