

Armed robbery at Dollar General on Russellville Road

July 24, 2016

The Warren County Sheriff's Office responded to an armed robbery at the Dollar General on Russellville Road in Bowling Green just before 10:00 P.M.

Employees described the man as a white male, 5'2" and short brown buzzed hair. He had on a camo short-sleeved shirt, jeans and a cardboard mask. He came in the store and demanded money.

The clerk told police the suspect was armed with a handgun. The clerk complied with his demands and he left the store on foot.

Anyone with any information on this man should contact the Warren County Sheriff's Office at (270) 842-1633.

Deputies are telling the public not to approach anyone who fits the description, because he is considered armed and dangerous.
