

LENT TALKS @ STBBC 2021

reflections on life, faith, and being a follower of Jesus

Lent Tuesdays @ 8pm

23rd FEB

Shane Claiborne is a prominent speaker, activist, and best-selling author. Shane is a champion for grace which has led him to jail advocating for the homeless, and to places like Iraq and Afghanistan to stand against war. Now grace fuels his passion to end the death penalty and help stop gun violence.

2nd MAR

Chine McDonald is head of community fundraising and public engagement at Christian Aid. She is a regular contributor to BBC Religion and Ethics programmes, including Radio 4's Thought for the Day. Her second book God is Not a White Man? will be published in May 2021.

9th MAR

David McLaughlan is a Baptist minister and an Associate Tutor at Spurgeon's College. He has spent the last five years researching how the church can more confidently understand the place of people with disabilities in the gospel and in the kingdom of God.

16th MAR

Penny Marsh is a Baptist minister who is currently Mission Enabler for the South Eastern Baptist Association, with a specific focus on pioneering in the new Ebbsfleet Garden City in Kent. Penny works across denominations encouraging mission, particularly in new housing developments.

23rd MAR

Grace Thomas is an Anglican priest serving in Moss Side, Manchester. She is also the Diocesan Environment Officer and works with local churches and schools to meet the Net Zero Carbon target. Her chapter 'Eve as Everywoman: Climate Grief as Global Solidarity' was recently published in the book Words For a Dying World.

30th MAR

Until recently a part of the STBBC ministry team, Elizabeth Stoner is now the minister at Light of Life Baptist Church, Ormesby St Margaret, Norfolk. A gifted pastor and a committed advocate of churches engaging with their local communities, Elizabeth is also passionate about the arts and the environment.

SHOEBURYNNESS & THORPE BAY BAPTIST CHURCH