

Title: Licensed Land Surveyor (MN, SD) or Land Survey Technician

Location: Fargo, ND

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Operating effectively within a survey team with minimum supervision.
- Performing topography, staking, boundary surveys, and control surveys using both conventional and GPS techniques.
- Performing construction observation and data recording.
- Operating various survey instruments including GPS equipment, levels and total stations with electronic data capabilities, and collecting information in the field.
- Following company policies and procedures and party chief's directions, as necessary to meet project schedules, budgets and objectives.
- Future training, mentoring, and assessment of trainee personnel.
- Complying with all safety requirements.
- Taking accurate and clear notes and maintaining records essential to the project.
- Performing other duties as assigned.
- Maintaining an attitude of professionalism and integrity.

Qualifications:

- Valid driver's license and clean driving record.
- Previous supervisory experience within a survey crew a plus.
- Proficiency with running and adjusting/calibrating various survey instruments including GPS equipment, levels and total stations with electronic data capabilities, including Trimble software for computer and data collector.
- Ability to read and interpret construction drawings and specifications.
- Attention to detail.
- Effective written and oral business communication skills and well organized.
- Ability to work during inclement weather.
- Prepared to travel and to perform onsite work daily.
- Maintain a professional attitude and demeanor at all times, in-office or onsite.
- Drone experience preferred.
- 3D Scanner experience preferred.

To apply, send your cover letter and resume to: Lightowler Johnson Associates, Attn: Nate Anderson, 700 Main Ave, Fargo, ND 58103 or nanderson@lja-1.com.

Lightowler Johnson Associates, Inc. (LJA) is a full-service A&E firm headquartered in Fargo, ND. LJA is one of the few firms in the area that provide architecture, engineering (mechanical, electrical, civil and structural), and land surveying services in-house. Since 1954, LJA has proven to be a leader in the hospitality, commercial, residential development and industrial industries, receiving national recognition as "Top Architects and Designers" year after year.

For more information about LJA, please visit www.lja-1.com.

LJA is an Equal Opportunity Employer and Drug-Free workplace.