

Dear Friends of Pilgrim Pines,

It is with sadness that I inform you of Scott Lee's resignation from his position as the Executive Director of Pilgrim Pines. Scott did not make this decision lightly and is stepping down for important personal and family reasons effective February 17. We have already seen great things from Scott's short tenure at camp. While this is not our choice, we respect Scott's decision and wish him the very best.

The Board is working diligently with Jim Condap and Karen Manlove to continue to move our organization forward during this time of transition. We are looking forward to seeing the next chapter of the ministry unfold.

Please pray for Scott and his family and for the Pilgrim Pines Staff and Board members. If you have any questions please direct them to Howard Burgoyne, Conference Superintendent or me.

In His Service,
