About Dr. Hillary Glenn, DNP, FNP-BC, IFMCP

Hillary Glenn received her Masters of Science in Nursing from Columbia University in 2007. She went on to receive a Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) from Florida State University in 2013 and here Certified Functional Medicine Provider through the Institute of Functional Medicine, a global leader in functional medicine education. Glenn is a Family Nurse Practitioner currently practicing at Emerald Coast Urgent Care in Miramar Beach and Panama City Beach, Florida. She is a co-founder and board member of the Point Washington Medical Clinic, where she also serves as a healthcare provider. Glenn has a vision of healthcare for the new urbansim that supports prevention and healthy living, by creating lifestyle habits that perpetuate maximum wellness at the individual’s highest potential for the longest time. In this healthcare system, urgent healthcare needs are met, while simultaneously offering lifestyle programs to support proper nutrition, movement (exercise), healthy sleep practices and mindfulness.