FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JAMfest Super Dance Nationals to draw more than 7,000 people to Northern Kentucky

Over 4,500 dancers and their families will take over the NKY Riverfront on February 13, 14, and 15, 2015. JAMfest Dance Super Nationals will return to the Northern Kentucky/Cincinnati region for the 11th year in a row to host the largest all-star dance competition in the world! This event is devoted specifically to dancers, and the weekend will boast over 300 dance teams athletic performances. The event will be held at the Northern Kentucky Convention Center, and will last from approximately 3:00 p.m.- 9:00 p.m. on Friday and from 7:00 a.m.-10:00 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

Admission is $10/day to the public and there will be plenty for the entire family with 3 arenas being used at all times. Cyrus Spencer, will be the 2015 JAMfest Dance Super Nationals Master Class Instructor! He was on Season 9 of "So You Think You Can Dance," and is known for his animation, popping and Robotics style. The master classes start Friday night with an intermediate session at 6:00 p.m. and an advanced class at 8:00 p.m. and are for the competitors only. Each class is followed by a meet and greet for photos and autographs. Additional master classes from other talented choreographers will take place throughout the day on Saturday.

This event will feature over 300 all-star and school dance teams from 17 different states including Alaska, California, Colorado, Florida, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri, Michigan, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Texas, Virginia, and Wisconsin, and even international teams from Japan.

JAMfest Dance Super Nationals will attract nearly 4,500 dancers, aged 4-34 years old, and more than 5,000 spectators. Teams will compete for National Championships in their respective divisions and for overall Grand and Dance Champion awards. Each team will compete once on Saturday and once on Sunday for the honor to be a National Champion. Routines will be scored and critiqued by a panel of respected national judges in the dance industry and all awards will be given out on Sunday. National Champions will receive a National Champion trophy and banner, as well as individual jackets. JAMfest will be giving out 18 world bids to the highest scoring teams in the Senior and Open divisions throughout the weekend. The only way that a team is able to go to the World Championship is by receiving one of these bids.

JAMfest Dance Super Nationals is produced by JAMfest, located in Louisville, KY, and has been producing and directing events for 19 years and currently has over 60 events all over the country. JAMfest is part of The JAM Brands, a company that offers all products and services related to cheerleading and dance. The JAM Brands will produce nearly 200 events this year and is even branching out to competitions in Japan, England and Canada!

"Northern Kentucky Convention Center continues to be the perfect location for the largest national youth event to date. Our family-friendly and affordable location strengthens the idea that our region is one of the premier amateur sporting destinations," said Eric Summe, President and CEO of meetNKY.

"We're thrilled to team up with the Greater Cincinnati Sports Corporation and meetNKY to host this premier dance event which is the LARGEST all-star dance nationals in the U.S. This is a perfect environment for our athletes and their families. It is welcoming and accommodating to all involved. We look forward to an ongoing team effort committed to this events future growth," said Aaron Flaker, Co-owner of The JAM Brands.
