

CSPN Welcomes NCAA Senior Vice President of Championships Dr. Joni B. Comstock

The Cincinnati Sports Professionals Network (CSPN) is excited to announce that its next quarterly information and networking session will take place Tuesday, March 23 at 5:30pm at Xavier University's Cintas Center in conjunction with the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament. NCAA Senior Vice President of Championships Dr. Joni B. Comstock will address the dynamics of women in sport. The evening's event will include networking, a formal discussion on women in sport led by Dr. Comstock, and viewing of the second round game of the 2010 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament. Light fare and beverages will be provided. Admission is $20 and will include ticket price for the game.

About Dr. Joni B. Comstock - Dr. Joni B. Comstock joined the NCAA as Senior Vice President of Championships and Senior Woman Administrator in September 2006. Her duties at the national office include oversight of 84 NCAA national championships, statistics, playing rules administration, media coordination efforts and gender initiatives. Prior to the NCAA, Comstock served as Athletic Director at American University and University of North Carolina, Asheville. Dr. Comstock received a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Eastern Illinois University and a master's degree in education and sports management from Illinois State University. In 1987 she earned a doctorate in administration of higher education from the University of Illinois, Champaign.

About CSPN - CSPN serves as a networking organization for area sports professionals and offers regularly scheduled programs and an annual awards ceremony for the local sports business community.
